The Fifth ...

BEING A CONTINUANCE OF BARS, AND OTHER
PLEADINGS,
From the FOURTH PART.

WHEREIN

The BARS and PLEADINGS in Debt,
Detinue, Quare Impedit, Replevin, Trespass, Trover, and Wast, are continued either by Precedents of, or References to, all the Pleadings extant respecting the same.

With Variety of Notes, Arguments, and other Observations thereunto relating.

In Two Volumes.

TO THE READER.

S I R,

HAVING, at the End of the Fourth Part of Instructor Clericalis (in Bar al Debt sur Obl', which concludes with Bars as to Counterbonds to save harmless, &c.) referr'd the Readers to a Fifth Part then composing, in which I promised to give Satisfaction to the Subsequent Matters intended: I have, after much Labour and Care therein, compleated this Fifth Part, ending with Bars and Pleadings in Actions of Wast, as by the Introduction and Table will appear. And tho' I have been as brief and concise therein, as the Nature of such an Undertaking would permit; yet there was a Necessity, and that for your Conveniency, to divide it into Two Volumes; the Table of the several Heads, and Matter of Pleadings therein contain'd, being at the End of the last Volume: Whereby it will appear, that I have endeavoured to perform my Promise, and that from the best of Modern Pleadings, Arguments and Authorities, intermixed also with Variety of References, &c. to those of the Ancients. I hope therefore you will favourably accept these my Endeavours, desiring you will also pardon the Errata's both of the Collector and Press, since Nemo sine Crimine vivit. I presume to subscribe my self,

To the Reader.

Your Humble Servant,

R. G.

Instructor Clericalis.

PART V.

IN the Fourth Part of Instructor Clericalis, pag. 230. Bars in Debt are observed to answer in such Particulars as follow, viz.

1. Bar al' Debt,	Sur Recovery.	Sur Counter-
	Sur Recogn'.	bond. *
	Sur Bill.	Sur Obl' de Ar-
	Sur Obl' pur Payment,	bitrement.
	Sur Account.	Sur Obl' al'
	Sur Contract.	Vic'
	Sur Emisset.	Sur Obl' de fe-
	Sur Escape.	peralibus re-
	Sur Mutuatus	bus faciend'.
	Sur Arbitrement sans Specialty.
	Sur Action pur Amerciament.
	Sur Statutes, &c.

Bar al Obl'

- { Per Dures.
 { Per Minas.
 { Per Deins Age, & per Coverture.
 { Per non est } For Raizure.
 { factum } For Interlineation.
 { } For Misreading, &c.
 { Per Ley Gager.
 2. Bar al' } Per Defeasance, & per Release, & Debt, { Acquittance.
 { Per Condition' perform'.
 { Per Delivery, & Acceptance, des { } auter Choses.
 { Per Tender.
 { Per Foreign Attachment.
 { Per Statute Ley.
3. Bar al' } Per Heirs.
 Debt, { Per Exec' & Adm', &c.
 { Al' Suit de Exec' & Adm', &c.

Yet the following Part of that Book would not conveniently permit to proceed any further than to Bar al' Debt sur Counterbond. *

Here the Fifth Part begins,

We must now therefore proceed in Order, beginning at Bar in Debt, Al Obl' sur Arbitre-ment, &c. and afterwards look into the other general Heads; as,

Bar in Detinue.

Bar in Quare Impedit.

Bar in Replevin.

Bar in Trespass.

Bar in Trover: And,

Bar in Waste.

And so draw this Fifth and most Concise Part to a Conclusion.

(Ec.) Unde per judic, &c. [Def' morat in Rege & quer' jung in morat.]

Note, The Condition was to perform an Award of all Differences between them.

It was argued, That this Award was all on one Side, for it doth not appear that there was any Difference between the Parties, save the Suit upon which the Costs are awarded, viz. 15*l.* and that was the Suit of the now Defendant; and what Benefit hath he by staying his own Suit, and paying 15*l.* for Costs? 2dly, He assigns the Breach, that the 15*l.* was not paid upon the 1st of December, so it might be paid before, and the Award is to pay it ad vel ante primum diem Dec.

It was answered to the First, That there might be well intended other Differences, tho' not set forth; and for ought appears, the Plaintiff in the Action mentioned in the Award might be subject to have Costs taxed at the Prosecution of the then Defendant, whereas this Award stops the Defendant from applying to the Court for Costs. — As to the Second, If Issue be taken upon solvit ad diem, Payment before the Day maintains the Issue. The Court inclined that the Award was good, sed adjournatur.

Quer moratur in Lege, Et Def' jung Demurrer.
in morat. Idem Saund. 326.

Note, That upon the Plaintiff's moving to have Judgment upon the Demurrer, Mr. Saunders for the Defendant objected, That the Plaintiff could not have Judgment, for that it appeared by the Record that the Award was void, being all to be perform'd by the Defendant, and nothing by the Plaintiff; and then if the Award be void, it is not material whether the Defendant had perform'd it or not, although he had pleaded Performance thereof; and yet he hath acknowledged the contrary by his waving of the Issue tender'd by the Plaintiff, and pleaded an ill Rejoinder; and the Plaintiff and Defendant had both agreed that the Award pleaded by the Defendant, was the true Award made by the Arbitrators, which is all over vicious: But if the Plaintiff would have aided himself, he ought to have shewn the other Part of the Award before that he assigned the Breach, which here he has not done, and therefore he could not have Judgment. And the whole Court was clearly of the said Opinion; but they would not give Judgment for the Defendant, because they conceived that there was a Trick in the Pleading; but they gave the Plaintiff Liberty, upon Payment of Costs, to discontinue. And Chief Justice Keeling reprehended Mr. Saunders for pleading so subtilly on purpose to trick the Plaintiff by omitting the other Part of the Award. But the Reporter says it was a Case of great Extremity, the Penalty of the Bond being but 2000 l. and the Award was for the Defendant to pay 3100*l.* when in Truth there was nothing due to the Plaintiff, but he was indebted to the Defendant. Afterwards the Defendant exhibited an English Bill in the Exchequer, discovering an ill Practice of the Plaintiff with the Arbitrators, and had Relief against the Bond. Vide 1 Saund. 327.

It was argued for the Defendant, That the Plaintiff ought not to have concluded to the Country, having alledged new Matter, scilicet,
That the Sum awarded was in Satisfaction of all Controversies, without which the Award was void, and by this Means the Defendant is deprived of his Opportunity of a Traverse to it;
and therefore the Plaintiff might not have Judgment, because it does not appear to the Court upon this Pleading, whether the Award be good or void; and of the same Opinion was Chief Justice Jones and Charlton, after Two Arguments at the Bar. Windham & Levins è con- tra, That the Defendant had admitted the Award to be good, and took upon him to plead the Performance.

And when the Plaintiff had pleaded this Traverse dis-Matter which proves the Award good, the De- allowed.
fendant shall not be admitted to traverse it, to prove the Award ill and null: But if the Truth be,
that the Award was not in Satisfaction of all Controversies, and so an Award on one Part only,
the Defendant ought at first to have pleaded Null Award. But when he had pleaded it as a good Award, and by the Replication it appears to be so, he shall not be admitted to a Traverse to prove it no Award; for that would be a Departure from his Plea, and amounts, that in

in his Plea there was an Award made ; and in his Rejoinder, to say there was no Award. Et sic pendet deus vobis deus.

The Condition of the Bond was to perform the Award of Two Arbitrators:

1. Upon the Argument it was said, That this Award as set forth appears to be void, for 'tis to pay the Charges expended, circa placit' predict', and the Award doth not mention any Suit before. And though the Plaintiff in her Inducement saith, that she had an Action for Words against the Defendant then depending, that will not help it, for that is no Part of the Award, but the Award in the Form as 'tis set forth is unintelligible, there being no Suit mentioned before, to refer placit' predict' unto.

2. 'Tis not sufficient to award Payment of the Charges in such a Suit, it being altogether uncertain what the Sum will amount unto.

3. It ought to have been shewn, that the Plaintiff had a Cause of Action in the Action that is mention'd to have been brought against the Defendant for Slander; and so is Spigurnel's Case in Siderfin, part 1. 12.

Parol Award,
how.

Per Cur', As to the First, if the Award were in Writing in such Form of Expression, it could not be good; but he which sets forth an Award by Parol is not tied to the Words, for the precise Words might be very difficult to prove, but 'tis sufficient to shew the Effect
and

and Substance of what was awarded by Word of Mouth, and 'tis sufficiently shewn that this Award was made concerning the Action of Slander.

As to the Second, the Court held that the Award was good ; for it may be easily reduced to a Certainty when 'tis made appear what was laid out in that Suit, as in 1 Roll. Abr. 251. Beale & Beale, and in the 3d Cro. 383. to pay the Charges of such a Voyage, held a good Award.

Thirdly, The Plaintiff need not shew that there was Cause of Action, for that is left to the Arbitrators, and they have Power to award Charges thereupon, though in Point of Law there were no Cause of Action, for the Parties have made the Arbitrators their Judges. And the Court were not satisfied with the Opinion cited by Siderfin in Spigurnel's Case, and said he was then a young Reporter. Whereupon Judicium p Quer.

 Quer' moratur in Lege, Et Def' jung
 in morat. 2 Saund. 186.

1. The Plaintiff's Council argued, That the Rejoinder was a Departure from the Plea in Bar; for in the Plea the Defendant says the Arbitrators made no Award, and yet in his Rejoinder he had implicitly confessed that they had made one, but that it was not tendered according to the Condition, which is a plain Departure; for it is one Thing not to have made an Award, and another Thing not to have tender'd it, being made. And although by the Condition both those Things are necessary to bind the Defendant to perform, yet the Defendant ought only to rely upon the one or the other of them, and may not insist upon both; for then his Plea would be double, one of the Matters being as sufficient to bar the Plaintiff of his Action as both together. And then when the Defendant in his Plea had chosen one of the Matters, viz. that the Arbitrators had made no Award, he may not in his Rejoinder wave the Matter of his Bar, and come to the other Matter, viz. that the Award was not tender'd; and yet in his Rejoinder he might have maintained his Plea, by averring that the Award was not tender'd according to the Condition : But if the Truth had been, that altho' the Award was made, yet that it was not tender'd according to the Condition, the Defendant ought to have pleaded thus at the first in his Plea, scilicet, That the Award was not tender'd as he had said at first. But now the Defendant had clearly departed from his Plea in Bar, and had pleaded other Matter which is not pursuant to the Matter in his Bar; and Kelw. fo. 175. was cited to that Purpose.

2. It was objected, That if the Rejoinder had not been a Departure, yet it could not be good because of the ill Conclusion of it: For the Plaintiff in his Replication had expressly averr'd, that the Award was tender'd according to the Condition, which is a plain and absolute Affirmative; and the Defendant in his Rejoinder says, that the Award was not tender'd modo & forma put, &c. which is a flat and direct Negative; and therefore the Defendant ought to have concluded his Rejoinder Al Pais, (for there was a perfect Issue between the Parties) and not with a Conclusion to the Court, with hoc parat' est verificare, &c. For after the Plaintiff's Affirmative, if the Defendant, when he had made a full and direct Negative, and not by a Traverse Absoq hoc, &c. will not conclude to the Country, the Matter shall never be determined; for by the same Reason that the Defendant shall not conclude Al Pais by his Rejoinder, the Plaintiff shall not be bound to conclude his Surrejoinder Al Pais, although he does nothing but only aver the Affirmative pleaded by him before, scilicet, That the Award was tender'd modo & forma, &c. and so the Defendant may rebut in the Negative

tive again without concluding to the Country; and so the Pleading shall be infinite without any Issue to be tried per Pais, which Thing is absurd; and the Issue of the Tender of the Award being perfect in the Defendant's Rejoinder, the not concluding to the Country in the Rejoinder is Matter of Substance, of which Advantage may be taken upon a general Demurrer; for by the ill Conclusion of the said Rejoinder, the Merits of the Cause cannot be tried, and by consequence cannot appear according to the Intent of the Statute of special Demurrers, 27 Eliz. cap. 5. and concluded that the Rejoinder was ill for that Cause also. Whereupon the Court ruled that the Rejoinder was a Departure, and that it was ill concluded, and therefore insufficient in Substance in both, Et judic' p' Quer.

Judic' pro
Quer.

Def' jura in mora, and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff by Three Justices: [Chief Justice Pollesfen dissenting, because the Arbitrators had executed their Authority, and had no Power to name a second Umpire; and that though F. J. did refuse, he might still have proceeded; and so C. C. had no Authority as Umpire, or else there would be a concurrent

Au-

Authority in several Persons, which the Law would not suffer, as in Roll. Abr. 262. and Sty. 306. so 1 Roll. Abr. 261.] But the Reasons of the other Three Justices were, That F. J. though nominated, yet was no Umpire, for his Refusal hinder'd that, and 'tis the Acceptance that makes him Umpire or Arbitrator; and that admitting it only an Authority to the Arbitrators to name an Umpire, yet there was no compleat Execution, for the Refusal of F. J. made it amount only to a bare Proposal to him, and did not conclude the Arbitrators to name another; and the Condition of the Bond was to be observed to submit to such a one as should be Umpire, and Umpire by the Nomination of the Arbitrators. It was further Where the said, that if F. J. after Refusal might have ta- first Umpire ken upon him again in case the Arbitrators refuses. had named no other, yet after another was named he could not, because their naming another upon his Refusal had quite taken away their first Nomination; but if F. J. had accepted before they proceeded to name another, then they had been prevented naming any other; so here could be no concurrent Power at all. Vide 2 Roll. Abr. 261. Frall & Bierly, and 2 Ven. 113, &c. 2 Saund. 129. 1 Mod. Rep. 274.

Also these Points were hereupon settled, viz. Authority That where an Authority is once fully exe- once executed, the Power is determined, but not so without a compleat Execution; and where a Man is vested with a bare Authority, his Denial or Refusal to execute it does not conclude him, but that he may execute it afterwards; but 'tis otherwise where he is vested with an In-

Interest. Vide 2 Vent. 115, 116, 117. 3 Lev. 263.

The Sole Question.

Note, This Action was Debt upon Bond, to stand to the Award of F. B. and R. S. on or before the Ninth of A. and if the Arbitrators made no Award, then to stand to the Umpirage of such Umpire as F. B. and R. S. should nominate to be made on or before the 16th of A. and upon the former Pleadings, the sole Question seemed to be, Whether Arbitrators, having Power to name an Umpire, may name a Second if the First refuses.

The Condition is to abide the Award of Two Arbitrators of all Actions, &c. so that the Award be made at or before the 23d Day of January. But if the Arbitrators shall not agree upon their Award, that then they shall choose and elect an indifferent Man, and they shall stand to his final End, Determination, and Judgment, which he shall give and determine on or before the 28th of the said January, under his Hand and Seal, then this Obligation shall be void, &c.

Upon the Argument it was objected, that the Defendant is not bound to perform the Award of the Umpire, because the Condition in ea parte was void and insensible, for the Words are rather directive than conditional;
 and it is also insensible, for that it is said, That the Arbitrators shall choose an indifferent Man, and they shall stand to his Award; which Word

Word [they] in this Place being in the Plural Number, signifies the Arbitrators, and not the Defendant. Also it doth not appear upon what Matter the Umpire ought to make his Award, for 'tis not limited by the Condition to be made of the Premisses; so that the Defendant is not by the Words to perform the Award, and would be absurd to say, That the Defendant shall be bound by the Bond that the Arbitrators shall perform the Award of the Umpire; and it could not be extended, that the Word [they] shall refer both to the Plaintiff and Defendant, for then the Defendant shall be bound that the Plaintiff shall perform the Award; which is more absurd, and against the Intention, that the Plaintiff shall have Power to make the Defendant forfeit his Bond nolens volens. And although generally, if a Condition be altogether insensible and void, the Bond shall be single, yet in this Case here is a good Condition notwithstanding that these Words are insensible, for the first Part of the Condition to perform the Award of the Arbitrators is good, and is a proper Condition, which is enough to defeat the Obligation; and if the Defendant had perform'd it, or is excused from it by the Law, if they had not made any Award, (as in this Case) the Bond is saved; and for that the Words are deficient in the other Part of the Condition, the Intention of the Parties will not serve, as appears by the Book, 39 H. 6. 10. a. But it was resolved and adjudged by the Court, that the Condition in ea parte was good enough, though it was not so properly express'd; and that the Defendant had forfeited his Bond for not performing the Award

Note.

Award of the Umpire. And they said, that any Words, by which the Intention of the Parties may appear, are sufficient to make a Condition of a Bond; because that if the Words, although they are improper, shall be construed void, and not a Condition, then in most Cases, and perhaps in this Case, the Bond shall be single, and in Force against the Defendant, although that he had perform'd the Condition of it, according to the Condition of the Parties, and the Condition being for the Benefit of the Defendant, shall be construed favourably for his Advantage; and although here such a Construction doth prejudice the Defendant, yet the Law is the same in all Cases, and may not be altered in this particular Case. And Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. 1 Saund. 65, 66.

Judgment
pro Quer'.

The Defendant prays Oyer of the Condition, and that of the Award. The Plaintiff sets forth a verbal Award; and the Defendant says he offered to pay, and tendered a general Release; and that the Plaintiff refused to accept them, &c. Lev. Ent. 44, &c.

The chief Objection upon the Argument was, That the Plaintiff had not precisely alleged the Award to be made 16th March, but only by a Scilicet, which is not traver-sable, though the Time was Matter of Substance. But the Court was of Opinion, that the Scilicet was sufficient, and the Matter thereby positively enough alledged, and they would not intend but the Award was made the same Day mentioned by the Scilicet, that is to say, the said 16th Day of March, according to the Condition, and upon no other Day. And the Plaintiff had Judgment per

1 Lut. 389, &c. Def' moratur in Lege.

The chief Matter which was insisted on for the Defendant was, that the Breach was not well assigned by the Replication; because that although the Award is, that the Defendant shall pay the Money upon the Delivery of the Award

Obj. to the Repl' of Payment upon Delivery.

Award to him, yet by a reasonable Construction of the Award, the Law will allow him a reasonable Time to pay the Money, for otherwise the Award might be deliver'd to him upon his Journey upon the Highway, far from his own Habitation, at which Place and Time it cannot be presumed that he had Money to pay, 18 E. 4. 21. Pla. 31. Rolls Condit. nu. 3, & 4. And if it should be so, that the Defendant shall have reasonable Time after the Delivery of the Award to him to pay the Money; then it follows that the Breach assign'd by the Replication is too strict and narrow. And the Breach ought to have been assigned, Quod denar non fuer solut sup deliberation Arbitri pres vel unqm postea. But the Opinion of the greater Part of the Court was, That the Breach was well assign'd, and that it shall not be intended that the Money was paid afterwards; and if it had, to have been paid in a reasonable Time after; that it ought to have been pleaded by the Defendant. And the Plaintiff had Judgment. Vide 1 Lut. 393, &c.

ff. Barr p null Award fait. Next, and shews the Award, and avers that the Plaintiff was ready at the Day and Place, and tender'd the Money awarded, and that none was there ready to receive it, and that he was always ready afterwards; and assigns Breach, that the Defendant had not delivered him quiet Possession of the Messuage, &c. Defendant demurs. 1 Lut. 520, &c.

Two Exceptions were taken in this Case by the Defendant's Council: First, That the Submission mission is Conditional, so that the Award ought to be final, which is not so in this Case, for the Award as to the Releases is void; for by them all Matters to the 12th of August (which is a long Time after the Submission) are to be released, and the Award of the said Releases is void, and by Consequence the whole Award, sed non allocatur. For although the Releases are void for that Cause, yet being that other Matters are awarded to each Party, the Award is good as to the Residue; and for that these Cases were cited, viz. Nuby vers' Sabb. 3 Cro. 809. Lea vers' Paine, Mo. 885. & Hob. 191.

Obj. against the Time of Release.

Other Matters awarded.

The Second Exception was, That the Condition of the Bond of Submission was, that if the Award was made, &c. ready to be deliver'd, &c. to the Parties, &c. and it is not averred in the Replication that the Award was ready to be deliver'd to the Parties, sed non allocatur; for when 'tis once made, 'tis ready to be deliver'd.

Against the Time of Delivery.

Vide 3 Mod. Rep. Rowsby and Manning's Case, which is the same Case in Effect as to this Point, and ruled accordingly. But there is another Reason given, viz. That the Condition being that the Award should be delivered to the Parties, or such of them as should desire it, it ought to be desired; and then if it be denied, the Party might plead the special Matter. Vide 1 Lut. 524. Vid. 3 Lev. Rep. 188.

To be delivered, if desired, &c.

ff. DEbt upon a Bond to perform the Award of an Umpire. Bar, That the Umpire awarded the Defendant to pay the Plaintiff 6*l.* and that after that, he should release to the Plaintiff, &c. and should permit the Plaintiff to enjoy such a Close, with an Averment of the Payment of the said 6*l.* &c. and that he was always afterwards ready to make the Release, and that he had not disturbed the Plaintiff in the Enjoyment of the said Close. Replication confesses the Award prout, but that he awarded over, That upon the Payment of the said 6*l.* the Plaintiff should make the Defendant a general Acquittance; and then he avers that the Defendant had not paid the said 6*l.* but takes no Issue upon it, but traverses the Umpire had awarded only as the Defendant had alledged, 1 Lut. 525.

Award over.

Traverse.

It appears that this Case was several Times strongly argued by the Council on both Parts; and the Council for the Defendant said That (as this Case is) there ought to have been a sufficient Breach of the Award made by the Umpire alledged in the Replication, and cited the Cases of Jeffrey and Guy, Yel. 78. Hayman and Gerrard's Case, 2 Saund. 102, and 326. Fuller and Sparkman's Case, 3 Cro. 66. Hob. 199. But in this Case, there was no sufficient Breach assigned; for the Defendant had shewn an Award made by an Umpire, by which (int' alia) it is awarded that the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff 6*l.* and the Plaintiff having replied that the Defendant had not paid it, he ought to have taken Issue thereupon, and not to have concluded with an Hoc parat' est verificare; and for that cited the 2d of Saund. 188. Roberts and Marriot's Case. But on the other Part it was said, That although the Replication is ill, because the Plaintiff had not taken Issue on the Payment, and also for that the Plaintiff by his

Tra-

Traverse in his Replication had lock'd up the Defendant so that he could not rejoin; yet the Bar is ill, for that by the Award the Defendant was to seal and execute to the Plaintiff a general Release; and he says, quod semper paratus fuit, whereas he ought expressly to aver that he had done it, or that he had tender'd him a Release, and he had refused it, for the Tender of the Release ought to come on the Part of the Defendant, as it is adjudged in Baker and Bulstrode's Case, 1 Ves 255. and therefore that there was no need to make a Replication; and then the first Fault being in the Bar, which in Effect is no Bar, the Replication to it shall not hurt.

Chief Justice Treby was of Opinion, That it was not requisite in this Case to shew any Breach, because the Bar was meerly idle and impertinent, for it appears not that the Umpire had any Authority to make an Award; and it is all one as if he had said, That the Arbitrators had not made any Award before the Submission, or that a meer Stranger had not made any Award: And the Plea here admits that the Arbitrators might have made an Award, for it is said in the Plea, that Two of the Arbitrators had not made any Award before the 15th Day of February, whereas by the Submission they had Authority to make it upon the said Day, and he might have demurr'd to such a Plea; and although he had replied to it, yet the Defendant having demurr'd to the Replication, the Plaintiff may take Advantage of the Imperfections of the Bar, because therein is the first Fault. But he admitted, that if the Defendant had pleaded Quod Award fuit, that then a sufficient Breach ought to have been assign'd. But Justice Powell was of a contrary Opinion, and he said, That it was true, that it was a general Rule that Judgment shall be against him that commits the first Fault; but that it is not so in the Case of an Award. If the Defendant had pleaded Non submittit, or such Collateral Matter, there need no Breach to have been assigned, but the Plaintiff might follow the Defendant in his Way: But when the Defendant pleads Null Award, or that which amounts to it, there Breach ought to be assigned. And the Plea here amounts to Null Award fact, and therefore a good Breach ought to be assigned. The other Judges deliver'd no Opinion in the Case, and thereupon the Plaintiff upon Petition had Leave to discontinue.

Traverse.

Vide (says the Reporter) Linsey and Astrey's Case, 2 Bulst. 38. and Godbolt 255. which is a notable Case, as well to the Traverse in this said Case of Strike and Bensley, as to the other Points thereof. See 1 Lut. 528, 529.

Award by the Umpire.

§. Defendant pleads, That neither the Arbitrators, nor the Umpire elected by them, made any Award. Plaintiff confesses that the Arbitrators made no Award, but shews an Award of the Umpire, and Breach for Non-payment of 5 l. The Defendant demurs. 1 Lut. 530.

Two Exceptions were taken to the Award:

1. That the Award that all Suits between the Parties, or any others on their Behalf, should cease, was void as to Strangers; and the Arbitrators bitrators intended the ceasing of the said Suits to be Part of the Consideration of the Payment of the said 5*l.* for Cost for the Defendant; and inasmuch as he could not have the full Benefit intended for him, the Award is void in toto. 1 Rolls Abr. 259. nu. 10. Pope and Skinner's Case, 2 Saund. 292.

2. That the Submission here is conditional, (though it be only Ita qd' arbitrium fiat ante tale tempus) as if it had been Ita qd' fiat de pmissis p'dict' ante tale tempus; and so it is adjudged in Inglet and Risden's Case, 3 Gro. 438. and then if it be not final, it is void in toto, Harris and Painter's Case, Rolls Arbitrement 261. nu. 7. But this Arbitrament is not final, for thereby 'tis awarded that the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff 5*l.* towards his Charges at Law, and the Apothecary's Bill, and other his Charges; so that for Part of them the Plaintiff is at Liberty to sue sed non allocatur; and the Plaintiff had Judgment.

Ita qd', &c.

To pay towards Charges.

And the Court said, That the Words [towards his Charges] shall be taken in Satisfaction of all Charges. Vide 1 Lut. 533.

§. Debt upon a Bond to perform the Award of an Umpire, so that the Award be made in Writing, or by Word of Mouth, before Two Witnesses. Bar per Pull Agard said, by the Arbitrators, or by the Umpire. Repl. That the Umpire made an Award ore tenus, but 'tis not said before Two Witnesses. Defendant demurs; and Judgment for the Defendant for that Fault in the Replication. 1 Lut. 535, 538.

Award for Defendant to take Goods in the Plaintiff's Possession.

By the Opinion of Three Judges against the Opinion of Justice Blencow, Judgment after 2 Arguments was given for the Plaintiff upon this Reason, viz. For that it appears by the Award, that the Plaintiff at the Time of making thereof had the Possession of the Mare and Colt; which Possession shall not be intended tortious, but much rather a legal Possession, as for Damage Fesant, Bailment, or any other such Matter, for which the Plaintiff might have justified the detaining of them, and then the Award would be mutual. But a Writ of Error was brought. Vide 1 Lut. 540, &c.

¶ The Defendant pleads Pul Agard fait per Arbitratores, but that they nominated an Umpire, who awarded that the Defendant should pay to the Plaintiff 40 l. which he had not paid. The Plaintiff replies, after Oyer of the Award, that the Defendant had not paid him the said 40 l. Et hoc petit, &c. Defendant demurs. 1 Lut. 541.

Two Objections were made upon the Argument of this Demurrer:

1. That the Award was only on one Part. But the Court resolved, That forasmuch as that that the Umpirage recited that there were Dealings between the Plaintiff and Defendant, and that the Plaintiff had paid to the Defendant all that was due to him, and then order'd the Defendant to pay to the Plaintiff that which was due to him, it should be intended that it was in Satisfaction of the Debt due by the Defendant to the Plaintiff.

Intendment of Satisfaction.

2. It was objected by the Defendant's Council, That the Arbitrators having Power to make their Award on or before the 21st of May, and they having elected an Umpire before that Day, viz. the 20th Day of the said Month, from which Time the Arbitrators had no Power to make such Election, and by consequence the Umpire had no Authority to make an Award, for the Arbitrators had Power until the End of the said 21st Day of May to make their Award. ſed non allocatur, because no Award being made by the Arbitrators, the Award of the Umpire is good, and the Plaintiff had Judgment, 1 Lut. 544. For this last Point the Reporter refers to Cro. Car. 263. Jennings verſus Vandiput, 1 Rolls Abr. 262. nu. 5. 2 Jones 167. Caſe & Dures, & 2 Mod. Rep. 169. 2 Saund. 133. all which are Authorities for the Reſolution here. But (ſays he) ſee alſo 1 Levinz. 285. Copping verſus Haverrard, & 302. Donavan verſus Maſcal, 1 Rolls Abr. 262. nu. 6. Vide 3 Lev. Rep. 163.

ſſ. Debt upon Bond to perform an Award, ita qd' fiat, ita qd' fiat de pmiſſis. Bar p nul Award &c. ſait. The Plaintiff by Replication ſhews the Award; and assigns Breach, that the Defendant dant had not paid him 11 l. secundum formam & effectum Arbitrii p̄dicti. The Defendant demurs, 1 Lut. 545.

How the Breach ought to be assigned.

Upon the Argument an Exception was taken to the Replication, that the Breach was not well assigned; for by the Award the Defendant is to pay to the Plaintiff 11 l. at or before the 7th Day of May; and the Breach assigned is, for that the Defendant had not paid the said 11 l. secundum formam & effectum Arbitrii p̄dicti, whereas he ought to have alleged that he had not paid the 11 l. sup̄ vel antecum̄ diem, according to the Words of the Award, so that the Defendant might have taken a single Issue either upon the one or the other; and cited Dier 243. b. which Book seems to be an Authority in the Point. Sed non allocatur. For though the Court declared, That it had been better if the Breach had been assigned according to the Words of the Award, yet they were of Opinion, that the Breach was well enough in Substance. Mes. (saith the Reporter) Vide Brooks and Dean's Case, 1 Levinz. 145. & 3 Lev. 293. Walnough & Holgate's Case, 2 Mod. Rep. 269. in Harwood's Case, Et nota:

Release awarded, &c.

Divers Exceptions were taken to the Award it self, and Answers were made to every Particular by the Council on the other Part. And the Opinion of the greater Part of the Court was, That the Release by the Award to be made by the Plaintiff to the Defendant, if it had been executed, had been a Release to the Bond of Submission; and that the Submission was conditional as well as to the Matter of the Award,

Award, as in respect of the Time to make the Award: Yet notwithstanding they all were of Opinion, that the Award was good, because there was a particular Satisfaction and mutual Recompence, as to every particular Matter awarded. Vide 1 Lut. 549. Mutual Recompence.

ff. The Defendant pleads in Bar, No Award or Umpirage made. Plaintiff replies, and shews the Award of the Umpire, and Breach, that the Defendant had not paid him 12 l. 15 s. Defendant demurs. 1 Lut. 550. Award by Umpire.

1. In this Case it was agreed by the Court on both Parts, that the Submission being Conditional, with an Ita qd' fiat de pmissis, if it appears by the Award it self, that it was not final in respect of all Matters within the Submission to their Award, it is ill in the whole; and so it was resolved by the Court. Ita qd' fiat, &c. conditional.

2. It was resolved, That the Award to deliver Three several Boxes, and several Books, was altogether uncertain and void, unless it had been said what Books were in the said Boxes.

3. It was resolved, That although no Time is appointed by the Award for the Execution of the Releases on both Parts, nor is it said that it shall be done upon or after the Performance of the other Parts of the Award; yet it was resolved that the Award being void in respect of the Delivery of the Goods, neither the one nor the other was obliged to perform it, for then the Goods would be released without any Satisfaction, which (as was said by one of the Justices) would be absurd. Release.

Another

Reservation
by the Umpire.

Another Point was moved in the Case, Whether the Umpirage was not void, by reason that the Umpire had reserved to himself and the Two Arbitrators (who were chosen to determine the Matters before them) to make a Valuation of the Goods which were lost or mislaid: And as to that, Chief Justice Trevor and Justice Blencow were of Opinion, that it was a judicial Thing, and not meerly ministerial, and that the Award was therefore void. But Justice Powell was of another Opinion; but they all agreed that the Judgment should be given for the Defendant, and so it was. Vide 1 Lut. 554. where several Authorities are afterwards referr'd to.

Award to be under Hands and Seals.

§. Debt upon Bond to perform the Award of Two Arbitrators, to be under their Hands and Seals, &c. Bar p nul Agard fait. Repl, That the Arbitrators, ceper super se onus Arbitrii predicti * per scriptum suum indentat, &c. arbitrat fuer' ordinauer', &c. without the Word [Et], that the Defendant should pay to the Plaintiff 66 l. at the then Dwelling-house of the Plaintiff in Senock, predicti, &c. Senock being not before mentioned, 1 Lut. 558. Def' moratur in Lege.

These Exceptions were taken for the Defendant by Sir Nathan Wright.

1. That it was not averr'd that the Award was under the Hands and Seals of the Arbitrators, but only p scriptum indentat sigillis eorū sigillat, &c.

2. That

2. That after the Words in the Replication, Word [E:]
viz. Qu Arbitrator reperit super se onus Arbitrii predicti, the Word [Et] should have been inserted after those Words, and before the Words [p script', &c.] and that for want thereof it does not appear that the Award was made in due Time.

3. That the Money awarded to be paid by the Defendant to the Plaintiff, is awarded to be paid at the House of the Plaintiff at Senock (predicti), and no such Place is named before.

1. To the First, it was answer'd by Serjeant Selby, That although in the first Part of the Award it was not alledged that it was made under the Hands and Seals of the Arbitrators, yet it is afterwards said, That it was ready to be deliver'd under their Hands and Seals, which is sufficient.

2. To the Second, it was answer'd, That the Word [Arbitrator] is a Substantive which governs all the Words in the same Sentence, and is all one in Effect as if it had been said, Qu Arbitrator predicti reperit super se, & Arbitrator predicti arbitraverit Arbitrator, predicti Ordinaverit Arbitrator predicti determinaverit, & Arbitrator predicti adjudicaverit, &c.

3. To the Third it was answer'd, That the Word [Predicti] being annexed to the Word [Senock], (this Word [Senock] being not mentioned before) was void, and cited 3 Balsf. 198, 199. And so notwithstanding the Exceptions, the Plaintiff had Judgment, 1 Lut. 560, 561. And he Judgment pro Quer'.

he adds, that it was affirm'd upon Writ of Error in B. R. as Serjeant Selby had informed him.

ff. Defendant pleads, Pul Agard fait. Rept, & monstre le Agard, and Breach for Non-payment of 30 l. Rejo', That the Plaintiff T. non submisit. Defendant demurs. 1 Lut. 571, &c.

When an Award shall be good by reason of Equity, &c.

An Objection was made, That it appear'd by the Condition of the Bond of Submission that the Plaintiff Templeman was no Party to the Submission, for that the Condition is, That if the Defendant Clemence, staret ad & perfozm Arbitrium, &c. But the Plaintiff's Council answer'd, That here was a good Submission by Templeman, and that in Effect the Case is only this: A Bond is made by the Defendant to Elizabeth Templeman in Trust for the Plaintiff Templeman, which Elizabeth is afterwards married to the Plaintiff Lynch. Then a Bond is made by the Defendant to both the Plaintiffs, with a Condition that the Defendant shall stand to the Award of the Arbitrators indifferently elected, as well on the Part of the Defendant, as on the Part of the Plaintiff Lynch, to arbitrate all Matters in Controversy between the said Parties, or either of them. Now when Lynch married with Elizabeth Templeman, who was Trustee for the Plaintiff Templeman, Lynch becomes Trustee for Templeman, then when Templeman joins with Lynch his Trustee in the taking of the Bond of Submission, it appears that he had fully assented and agreed, that the Matters in Controversy verſy touching the Bond taken by him in the Name of Elizabeth Templeman, ſhould be determin'd by the Arbitrators, which amounts to a Submiſſion to their Award. Upon the whole Argument, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff; for moſt of the Judges were of Opinion, That a Court of Equity would make effectual all that was in the Award, for which there was any need of Equity: Vide 1 Lut. 575, &c. And there it is ſhewn where an Award ſhall be good by reaſon of Remedy in Equity, and where a Thing awarded to be done to a Stranger to the Submiſſion ſhall be good; alſo where an Award ſhall be good, though a Release is awarded, by which the Bond of Submiſſion ſhall be releaſed.

P.* at several Days. Bar per nul Award fait. Repl, and Breach, That the Defendant had not paid the 100*l.* 25 Martii. Rejo', That the said H. P. made a Nuncupative Will, and his Wife and M. the Wife of the Plaintiff, Executors, and that the Plaintiff's Wife died before the Submission, and the Controversy was between the Plaintiff and Defendant concerning the whole personal Estate of the said H. P. which was submitted, &c. but the Award was not of the whole Personal Estate. Quer' moxatur in Rege. 1 Lut. 382, &c.

1. It was objected by the Plaintiff's Council, That the Rejoinder was a Departure from the Bar; for that thereby the Defendant had affirm'd, affirm'd, that no Award was made; and by the Rejoinder, by a strong Implication, it is confess'd, That the Arbitrators made their Award, but that it was not made of the whole personal Estate of H. P. and cited 2 Saund. 489. Roberts vers' Marriot, 1 Sid. 180. Morgan vers' Man, Keilw. 175. pl. 8.

2. It was also objected, That the Rejoinder was apparently false, for thereby it is said that the Award was not of the whole personal Estate of H. P. whereas by the Award the 250*l.* is awarded to be paid to the Plainriff as his full Moiety, Portion, Part, and Proportion of the personal Estate of the said H. P. which is to be intended also to be in Satisfaction of his Share of all the said personal Estate. And moreover 'tis awarded, that upon Payment of the said 250*l.* the Parties shall give general Releases one to the other; by which there is a final Award made as to all the personal Estate of the said H. P.

The Court was clearly of Opinion, That the Award was a full and final Award; and also it seem'd to them, that the Rejoinder was a Departure from the Bar, 1 Lut. 385, 386.

Umpire,
where bar'd
as to part.

IF the Parties submit themselves to the Award of certain Persons, and if they cannot agree,
then to the Ordinance of another as Umpire:
If the Arbitrators make their Award of Parcels, the Umpire shall not make his Award of the other remaining Part.

But

But if the Submission be such, that the Umpire shall make his Award of the Whole or Part, then it's said he may make Award of such Part with which the Arbitrators have not meddled.

Where not barr'd.

In Debt upon a Bond conditional to perform an Award, to be made by Two by such a Day, and if they cannot agree, then to the Umpirage of A. B. so he award by the same Time: And 'tis there said, that where the Arbitrators and Umpire have the same Time, if either make an Award it is sufficient. But then all agreed, that an absolute Refusal of the Arbitrators should be alledged, as to say, That they altogether refused, and not to say that they did not, nor could not make the Award. 2 Keb. 562, 619. Siderf. 428. 1 Mod. Rep. 15. See after.

When the Arbitrators and Umpire have the same Time.

If the Arbitrators do wholly desert it, the Umpire may Award; for if the Arbitrators desert only one while, they may take it up within the Time. Siderf. 1455.

Desertion by Arbitrators.

But where the Arbitrators are left to choose the Umpire in the same Time, and do so, they thereby relinquish their Power, especially where the Submission to an Umpire is upon their Disagreement, otherwise an Award by the Umpire within their Time is void. 1 Keb. 6. 848. 2 Keb. 714. 1 Mod. Rep. 274.

Arbitrators to choose an Umpire.

In Debt upon a Bond to perform an Award of Arbitrators, so as it be made by the Second of March, and if not agreed then, to the Umpirage of whom A. and B. elect, so as he award by the Fifth of March. It was objected, that the Umpire was elected but the Third of March; but the Court said, If he were elected on the Fourth, it was sufficient, 3 Keb. 387.

An Award that one of the Parties shall discharge the other from his Undertaking to pay a Debt to a Third Person, a good Award. 1 Mod. Rep. 9. 2 Keb. 546. 1 Cro. 541.

Judge Twisden said, (upon a Motion in Arrest of Judgment, because an Award was not good) That the Umpirage could not be made till the Arbitrators Time were out; and if any such Power be given to the Umpire, it's naught in its Constitution, for Two Persons cannot have a several Jurisdiction at one and the same Time. *1 Mod. 1 Cro. 263, Arbitrators may nominate an Umpire within their Time for making their Awards, so that the Chusing the Umpire doth not extinguish their Authority, as on or before the 19th of February. It is true, the Arbitrators might chuse him upon that Day, or before, but yet still they might have made an Award, and therefore he could not. 1 Mod. 275. 2 Sand. 132. See after.

Submission of an Award to Four, so that they made it by the 16th of November, and signified it under the Hands and Seals of Two of them, and then alledges the Award under Two of their Seals: To which the Defendant demurred, conceiving the Award to be void because the Submission was to Four. If

If the Defendant be the Cause that no Award is made, it is as much a Forfeiture of his Bond, as not to perform it would be. 1 Vent. 71. If Defendant hinders the Award.

In Debt upon Bond conditioned to perform an Award, Defendant pleaded Nullum fecerunt Arbitrium. Plaintiff replies, and sets forth the Award which did express the Bond of Submission to be dated the 17th of February, whereas it was dated the 10th of February; and for that misrecital the Defendant demurred. But the Court held clearly, that it did not hurt the Award. And so if the Submission had been of divers particular Matters, yet if they had meddled with the Things only submitted it had been well enough. 1 Vent. 184. Date of the Submission Bond.

If no Place be mentioned in Pleading where the Award was made, it is naught, 2 Vent. 72. But the Plaintiff may shew in his Replication, that the Award or Submission was made at such a Place, 2 Brownl. 137. But where an Award is pleaded in Bar of a Trespass, a Place must be laid where the Submission was made, Cro. Eliz. 66. b. Place of Award made.

That an Award may be by Word of Mouth; and he that sets forth such Award is not tied to Strictness of Words, but 'tis sufficient to shew the Effect and Subitance of what was Award. 2 Vent. 242.

But Note, The Condition of the Bond must be regarded. Vide ante.

If all Debts, Sums of Money, and Demands, are submitted to Arbitrement, the Arbitrators have Power to Award a Release of all Bonds, Specialties, Judgments, Executions, and Extents, by which the said Debts, Sums of Money, and Demands, are due. Idem 190.

An Award to release all Demands generally, is intended Demands to the Time of the Submission, and good; but of all Demands to the Time of the Award is void. 3 Lev. 188, 344.

Several Differences cited, and the Award as to one.

Debt upon Bond to perform an Award, the Defendant pleads no Award: The Plaintiff sets forth the Award, citing Differences concerning a House, divers Elms and Arrears of Rent. And the Arbitrators, to make a final End, awarded the Defendant should pay the Plaintiff 4*l.* for all the Arrears of Rent; and adjudged good upon Demurrer, that the 4*l.* should be intended in Satisfaction of all, the others not appearing, but only by the recital of the Award. 1 Lev. 132, 133.

of Money, yet never in case of a Bond to perform an Award, unless upon extraordinary Occasions. Ibid. & 140.

Where the Arbitrators and Umpire, both named by the Parties, have the same Day, the Umpire cannot make any Award, as upon a Bond to perform an Award, so that, &c. at or before the Feast of St. Michael; and if they made none, then to perform the Umpirage of J. S. so that, &c. at or before the said Feast of St. Michael. The Defendant pleads, that the Arbitrators made no Award, neither did the Umpire make any Umpirage. The Plaintiff replies, No Award; but sets forth an Umpirage, and assigns a Breach upon it. The Defendant demurs; and the Submission was adjudg'd to be void. 1 Lev. 285.

Arbitrators

have the same Day.

Note, It was said, If it had been that if the Arbitrators made none, then to such Umpire as they should name might have been good, because by their Nomination of an Umpire they had waved the Submission to themselves; but then it seems it ought to be pleaded that the Arbitrators had refused to make any Award, and so here: Whereupon Judgment was given for the Defendant. Vide ante, and Dyer 347. 1 *Roll. Submission to A. and B. and if they could not agreed, to such Umpire as they should elect, so as before the First of May, &c. The Arbitrators before their Time expir'd choose an Umpire, and afterwards themselves made an Award. It was objected, that by choosing an Umpire they had determin'd their Power, and put all into the Power of the Umpire. Justice Twisden inclined that the Award was good, and cited the Case of Bernard and King, Stiles 306. said to be so adjudged. It was answered,

The like Submission, so that the Arbitrators ad vel ante 19 Feb. the Umpire ad vel ante 20 Feb. The Defendant pleads no Award made. The Plaintiff agrees; but that 19 Feb. the Arbitrators elected an Umpire, who made an Umpirage, and thereupon assigns a Breach. The Defendant demurred, and argued that the Umpirage was void, being made before the Power of the Arbitrators was determined. But it was said on the other Side, that their Power was determined by their electing the Umpire; otherwise where the Umpire is appointed by the Party submitting, and he makes his Umpirage before the Time limited for the Arbitrators to expire. But yet Twisden and Moreton strongly inclined that the Umpirage was void, and the Power of the Arbitrators not absolutely determined by the Election of an Umpire, they having not absolutely refused to make any Award. Rainsford seemed to be of a contrary Opinion; and it was adjourn'd. 1 Lev. 302.

Note, That when the Court refers the Cause by Rule to the Arbitrement of 7. S. though it be void, yet the Court will force the Parties to submit to it, till it be avoided by Plea, 1 Keb. fo. 130. 13 Car. 2. But see the late Act.

Upon a Rule to give Bond to submit to an Award, no Attachment lieth, 1 Keb. pag. 138.

denied.

When the Rule of Court is for doing a particular Act, an Attachment lieth; but contrary, where 'tis generally to submit to an Award; and therefore upon a Motion for an Attachment upon Breach of a Rule of Court to submit to an Award, it was denied, 1 Keb. 138.

Where the Parties submit to a Rule.

In 1 Keb. pag. 634. it is set down for a Rule, That when the Parties by Rule of Court submit to Award, he that will have an Attachment must by Affidavit suggest Breach; and then the Defendant may come in and plead, that they made no Award, or shew Cause why an Attachment should not be awarded, and so the Matter may come in Debate. But no Attachment may be awarded on general Suggestion of Breach without Notice.

If the Party will not submit according to his Consent.

An Attachment was moved against the Defendant for Non-performance of an Award submitted to by the Rule of the Court made by Consent, as is used in the Common Pleas, which the Court refused, because hereby all Awards would be affirm'd as good, how void soever. But if the Party will not submit according to his Consent, the Court will grant an Attachment. 2 Keb. pag. 42.

An Attachment was pray'd for not performing an Award made by the Lord Chief Baron, by Rule of Assize made a Rule of Court; which Keeling Chief Justice denied, unless made by the Court, and said, The Attachment might be for not submitting, but not when an Award is made: But the Court held the contrary, yet an Attachment was denied, 2 Keb. p. 645.

Vide

Vide Siderf. 452. pl. 19. But see 2 Keb. p. 585. where 'twas granted for not obeying an Award made by Rule of Affize, after made a Rule of Court.

Holloway pray'd to set aside an Attachment and Rule of Court on an Award made unreasonably. But it was not allowed for the Award good or bad, being on Reference agreed by Council, whereby the Cause is put off. Attachment as well for Non-performance, as for not submitting.

On Westm. 1. cap. there ought to be a Rule for Performance, for Abuse to the Court, and Consent to the Party. And per Curiam, the Common Pleas are now satisfied to grant these Attachments; and that not only for not submitting to the Award, as was resolv'd by all the Judges at Oxford, in the Case of Lord Howard Earl-Marshal, but also for Non-performance; and so it was granted, 3 Keb. p. 104, 105.

Pollexfen pray'd Stop of an Attachment against the Defendant, for not performing an Award on Reference at Affizes. But it was not allowed; for the Trial being thereby put off, the Party would be deluded if no Attachment should be granted thereon. And albeit Submission the Matter was for Butter and Cheese sold by not to be elu-

THE Defendant after Oyer demurs to the Declaration upon Two Sheriffs Bonds; and it was thereupon argued for him, that the Declaration was ill, because the Plaintiff had declared against the Defendant only, whereas it appear'd upon the Oyer that they were Joint-Bonds, and that Two others were jointly bound in the same Bonds, and so the Declaration against one alone ought to abate.

But it was answer'd by the Plaintiff's Council, That the Declaration was good enough; for although that Two others are named in the Bonds, yet it does not appear that they put their Seals to it; and if the Bonds were not sealed by them, then the Bonds were single notwithstanding the Two other Persons being named. But if in Truth the other Two Persons had sealed the Bonds as well as the Defendant, then the Defendant, if he would have taken Advantage of it, ought not to have demurred upon the Oyer, but he ought to have pleaded in Abatement, That the other Two Persons sealed the said Bonds, and that they were yet alive, and so pray'd Judgment of the Bill, as appears by 28 Hen. 6. 3. & Cro. Upon the Argument of this Demurrer, it was said for the Plaintiff by Serjeant Wild,
That the Defendant's Rejoinder was ill, because he had taken a Traverse after a Traverse, for the Plaintiff had replied that K. was in Custody by Vertue of the Warrant returnable Die Sabbati prox' post Octab' pur', which was right according to the Condition of the Bond, & non virtute Warranti retornabil' die Veneris
prox' post Octab' pur', as the Defendant had pleaded; and this was a Traverse upon which the Defendant ought to have taken Issue, and not to have traversed over as here he has done ; and he put many Cases where there shall be no Traverse, after a Traverse taken before by the other Party, as 27 H. 8. fo. 2. b. and Digby and Fitzherbert's Case, Hob. 103. And here he said, That the Plaintiff in his Replication had traversed the Warrant returnable die Veneris, and therefore the Defendant in his Rejoinder cannot traverse the Warrant returnable die Sabbati.

The Defendant's Council argued, That the Rejoinder was good ; and first he denied that the Plaintiff had made any Traverse in his Replication ; for the Plaintiff only says, that the said K. was in Prison by Vertue of the Warrant returnable die Sabbati, & non virtute Warranti retornabil' die Veneris, which was no Traverse, but a flat Negative ; and the Plaintiff had relied upon his affirmative Matter before, and had not travers'd at all, and that the proper Words of a Traverse are Absque hoc, which are not in the Plaintiff's Replication, and so he had taken no Traverse : But the Court took not much Notice of this. Then he argued, That the Traverse in the Defendant's Rejoinder was good, notwithstanding that the Plaintiff had taken a Traverse in his Replication : And he agreed to the Rule, that a Traverse ought not to be taken after a Traverse ; but he took a Difference to be where the first Traverse is good, and taken to a material Point, and comes to the Substance, then there shall be no other Traverse taken after ; but where the first is idle, and not well taken, nor pertinent to the Matter, but of that which was sufficiently confess'd and avoided before, there the Party may take another Traverse after such an immaterial Traverse taken before ; and relied

Mr. Saunders's Argument pro Def.

lied upon the said Case of Digby and Fitzbert. Then here the Defendant had pleaded, that K. fuit in prifona retornabil' die Veneris, and so the Condition of the Bond not being according to the Return of the Warrant, was void: Whereupon the Plaintiff in his Replication has shewn that he was in Prison virtute Warranti retorn' die Sabbati, which was according to the Condition of the Bond; and then the Plaintiff had fully confessed and avoided the Defendant's Plea. for if K. was in Prison by Vertue of the Warant alledged by the Defendant, yet if he was also in Prison by Force of the Warrant alledged by the Plaintiff, the Bond was good, and not void, and so it was not material for the Plaintiff to traverse the Warant alledged by the Defendant, which the Plaintiff had sufficiently confess'd and avoided before. And he further said, That if an Issue should be join'd upon the Plaintiff's Traverse, it would be a Jeofail at Common Law; for suppose it be found that K. was in Prison virtute Warranti retorn' die Veneris, yet at Common Law the Court could not proceed to Judgment for the Defendant, because it does not appear but that he might be in Prison virtute Warranti retorn' die Sabbati, for that it is so pleaded, and not denied by the other Party, and so the Bond is good. And though peradventure it may be aided at this Day by the Statute of Jeofails, yet the Defendant is not constrained to take such Issue, no more than he was at the Common Law. And moreover he said, That the Issue should be taken upon the most material Point, and cited Helliar's Case, 6 Co. 24. b. But the most material Point here, was the Warrant returnable die Sabbati, which was the rightful Warrant; for upon an Issue

Jeofail.

If aided per Stat' Jeofails.

Issue join'd thereon, a Verdict found the one Way or the other upon such Issue determines the Matter; for if it be found that the said K. was in Prison by Force thereof, the Bond is good; and if it be found that K. was not in Prison by Force thereof, then the Bond is void; and he also put the Cases, 41 E. 3. Repl' 59: Dyer 171. Cro. Car. 384. Trespas for breaking the Plaintiff's Close: Defendant says, Qd' est son Franktenement. If the Plaintiff entitle himself to a Term for Years, he shall not traverse the Defendant's Freehold, because he has sufficiently avoided it; and the Plea and the Replication may well stand alike, because both of them may be true, and so he concluded the Rejoinder good. And for these Reasons Justice Twisden and Windbam, in the Absence of Justice Moreton, were of the same Opinion: But Chief Justice Keeling was of Opinion that the Rejoinder was ill, because he took it that there were was only one Warrant; but the Parties differ'd in the Return thereof, and then the Plaintiff alledging it to be returnable another Day than the Defendant had pleaded, he did well to traverse the Return which the Defendant had alledged before, upon which Traverse the Defendant ought to have taken Issue, and not to have traversed over. And afterward, in the same Term, the Matter was argued again (Pemberton pro Quer', & Jones pro Def') to the same Intent as before; and Justice Twisden, Windbam, and Moreton, in the Absence of Chief Justice Keeling, did severally deliver their Opinions for the Defendant, that the Rejoinder was good. But at the Instance of the Plaintiff's Council, the Court gave him Liberty to discontinue his Action upon Payment of Costs, although it was after they had deliver'd their Judgment. Vide 1 Saund. 20, 23. Where the Reporter adds, that he thought the Plaintiff would have objected against the Manner of the Traverse, Absque hoc qd' R. fuit in Prifona virtute Warranti, that the Virtute ought not to be traversed, but that was not moved. Manleverer vers’ Hamxby.

Upon the Argument, the Exception taken by the Defendant was to the Condition of the Bond, which says, That if M. appear die Sabati prox’ post Octab’ sancti Martini, &c. then the Condition of this Obligation shall be void; whereas it ought to be, Then this Obligation shall be void, &c. For it was said for the Defendant, That now if M. had appear’d at the Return of the Writ, yet the Bond would be in Force against the Defendant; for it is said the Condition shall be void, and then the Obligation would be single, and such single Bond is altogether void by the Statute, which appoints that such Bond shall be upon Condition for the Appearance of the Prisoner at the Day contained in the Writ: But here is no Condition of the Bond, but only a Condition of the same Condition, which says that the Condition shall be void, but does not say that the same Bond shall be void; and so there are no Words at all to make the Bond void, whereby if M. had appeared, or not appeared, the Bond is single, and without Condition, and therefore the Bond is against the Statute, wherefore Judgment was pray’d for the Defendant.

Exception by the Defendant, that it was a Condition of the same Condition.

But it was answer’d and resolv’d by the Court, That here the Bond was well enough for the Words [Then the Condition, &c.] for the Absurdity and Repugnancy of them shall be void, and no Regard had to them, no more than if they had been omitted, and the Sense shall be taken as if it had been, Then this Obligation shall be void; and if the Clause had been omitted, yet the Bond and Condition would be good enough, for after the Bond comes the Condition in this Manner, viz. The Condition of this Obligation is such, that if the said M. appear, &c. and then by these Words alone it appears that the Bond was taken for the Appearance of M. which is all the Statute requires, although this Clause, (scilicet), Then this Obligation shall be void, had been wholly omitted. And now the Addition of useless and impertinent Words shall not hurt the Bond and Condition, which were perfect before. wherefore Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Vide 1 Saund. 79 & 80. Where 'tis also noted, that the Defendant's Attorney had subtilly in his Plea averr'd, That the said M. was arrested by a Writ returnable at another Day than was contained in the Condition of the Bond; but it being only a Trick, he durst not, as he said, take any Advantage of it. And it is also noted, That the same Judgment was given upon the like Proceedings upon the same Bond, int' Manleverer & Atkinson, & Maleverer & Markinfield, in the same Term, Le Rol in Mich. 21 Car. 2. Rot. 299, 300. See Brownl Rediviv. 222, &c. Where the Condition runs If the above bounden Robert Wilson do appear in the King's Bench, die Mercur' prox' post quinden' Pasch', to answer William Briscoe, then this present Obligation to be void, and of none Effect, or else to stand in full Power, Force and Vertue, with Effect in Law. The Defendant pleaded the said Statute, and the Plaintiff demurred, and Judgment is said to be given for the Defendant, Eo qd' Conditio Obligationi fact' Vic' pro comparenc' Def' est mala insensibili. & caret forma. Def

First, That the Statute saith, That where the Party is in Custody by Vertue of any Writ, &c. in any Action, or upon any Indictment of Trespas, and an Attachment for Contempt out of Chancery, is not within the Words

Obj. That an Attachment is out of the Statute.

Words of the Statute, in the 3 Gro. Johns & Stratford 309. taken by a Serjeant at Mace upon Process out of the Grand Sessions, held not within the Statute in the 3 Leon. 280.

Secondly, The Condition is to appear Coram Rege in Cancellar' apud Westm' instead of ubicunque, as the Writ is; for this, Vide Styl. 234. Burton & Law, & Mo. 430. Corbet & Downing.

R. That it is cunque.

As to the First, the Court inclined that the Attachments out of Chancery were within the Statute, 'tis the constant Practice for Sheriff's to take Bail in such Cases. Vide Styl. 234. Roll's Opinion according. As to the second Point, 'Tis true that such Bonds have been judged void; but of later Times the Court have not been so strict upon the Wording of such Bonds, and a Case was cited to have been in *B. Upon this Demurrer it was argued for the Defendant, That the Bond was void by Force of the Statute 23 H. 6. cap. 10. of Sheriff’s Bonds, and that this Bond was given pro Favore & Easimento. But it was said on the other Side, That such a Bond with Condition might be given to a good End; and it did not appear that there was any Agreement for Favour and Ease, but the contrary, for the Plaintiff in his Replication had traversed it, and the Defendant by his Demurrer had confessed his Replication to be true: And the Case of Sir George Reynold against Elworthy, Latch 23, & 43. was cited, and chiefly the Case there cited of Sir Thomas Perrier, enter’d in Hill. 19 Jac. Regis, Rot. 1202. which Roll was produced and read in Court; and it appear’d that the Condition was ass’t this Condition, but there was an Issue upon the Easement and Favour, and found for the Plaintiff that the Bond was not for Ease and Favour, and thereupon the Plaintiff there had Judgment: Whereupon Judgment was also pray’d for the Plaintiff here; and although the Court at first doubted, yet upon reading the said Record they gave Judgment immediately for the Plaintiff. Vide 1 Saund. 163, &c.

In this Case upon the Argument it was agreed, That by the Bar the Declaration was made to be ill, prima facie, because it was so alledged that the Bond was made to the Plaintiff per nomen Vic': And then the main question was, Whether the Plaintiffs by their replication could amend and make it good by the Entry of the Bond upon Record? And was insisted for the Defendant, that they could not do; for the Declaration, as it was at first, that which is the Foundation of the Suit, and to which the Defendant is to answer, and upon which the Court is to give their Judgment; and therefore it ought to be perfect at first, and if it be not so, Advantage is given to the Defendant, which he had taken by pleading a good plea in Bar, which ought not to be avoided by the doing of a Thing which might have been done before, and by that Means to trick the Defendant, who notwithstanding anything that appears, had another, if this Advantage had not been given to him.

Q. If the Replication made the Declaration good.

Where 'tis not alledged that the Heir was bound.

That if Debt be brought against an Heir, and in the Declaration it is not alledged that the Heir is bound, can the Plaintiff after a Plea pleaded enter the Bond, and then demur? Certainly not. So the Bond upon which the Plaintiffs have declared is variant from the Bond inroll'd; for the Bond in the Declaration is to be intended of a Bond made to them in their private personal Capacity, and the Law will so intend, and the Bond which is inroll'd is made to them in their Capacity as Sheriffs. If an Action be brought against one by Bill in B. R. if it appears by the Declaration that he is not chargeable but only as Executor, the Bill shall abate; and so it is adjudg'd, 1 Saund. 111. So if an Original in Debt is brought against one, in which he is not named Heir, if the Declaration be against him as Heir, it is ill; and so adjudged per tot' Cur', 30 H. 6. 5. a. Chief Justice Treby was of Opinion, That the Defendant having pray'd Oyer of the Bond, he ought to have enter'd it, and then it had been Part of the Declaration; and that not being done by him, it might be done by the Plaintiffs; and if the Defendant had pleaded non est factum, it would be found against him; and it is the Pleading of the Statute which gives Occasion to the Plaintiffs to shew that the Bond was made to them as Sheriffs. And as to the Objection That if Debt be brought against one as Heir and in the Declaration it is not alledged that he was bound as Heir, that it is ill; the Chief Justice said, That in that Case it appears that the Declaration is ill, but in the Case here not; and that it is impossible to make a bad Declaration against an Heir good by a Replication. That after a long Debate, the Chief

If Defendant

Prothonotary Cooke produced in Court Ten Precedents of Writs and Declarations, directly according to the Writ and Declaration in this Case, all which Precedents were enter'd in Mich. 24 Car. 1. Rot. 1154, 1155. and thereupon Judgment was given for the Plaintiffs by the Assent of Justice Powell, who before was of Opinion against the Plaintiffs. Et Judic' pro Quor'.

Vide 1 Lut. 685, &c. Et vide ante, 1 Lut. 519, &c. for the like Case between the Writ and Count, as in this Case.

ff. Debt upon a Bond de Noningint' & Octogint' Libr', upon Oyer it was for Nongint' & Octogesima Libris, and then Variance pleaded between the Count and Obligation. Plaintiff by Replication prays Oyer of the Condition, which was for Payment of 490*l.* And thereupon the Plaintiff demurred, and Judgment for the Plaintiff. 1 Lut. 423, &c. Upon Variance pleaded.

ff. Vide 2 Lut. 1641. Where upon a Demurrer in a Action of Debt upon a Bond brought by a Chief Bailiff of a Liberty, the Defendant prays Oyer of the Original, Quo lecto & audito, he pleads in Abatement, because it appears both by the Writ and Declaration, that this Original was sued out before the Day of the Date of the Bond. The Plaintiff replies, That the Writ upon which he declares, was another Writ, and sets it forth pro ut per Breve. Rejoinder by Way of Estoppel, by reason of the aforesaid Oyer. The Plaintiff demurs. Upon Variance between the Writ and Declaration.

Upon the Argument it was held by Chief Justice Trevor, Nevil, and Blencowe, That the Replication was good, for the Writ being filed, the Reading of it is the Act and Office of the Court, Where the Reading the Writ shall not prejudice the Plaintiff.

Upon Oyer of a Deed.

Court, and shall not prejudice the Plaintiff, nor exclude him from shewing the true Writ. And this is not like to the Oyer of a Deed, for there the Reading of it is the Act of the Plaintiff himself, and therefore he shall not be admitted to say, That the Deed so read to the Defendant, is not the Deed upon which he declared. Justice Tracy was of another Opinion, as appears by the Report and Cases cited; but notwithstanding Judgment was given for the Plaintiff.

And it is there further observ'd:

Where a Demurrer may be to a Writ.

1. That there may be a Demurrer to a Writ, for any Insufficiency apparent in the Writ after Oyer of it, and Entry on Record as well as for Variance between the Count and the Deed upon which it is founded; and several Cases and Authorities are there cited.

2. That one cannot demand Oyer of a Deed, but during the Time that it is in Court, and that is for the whole Term in which it was produced in Court, 5 Co. 74. Wimarke's Case. So that 'tis as well in the Power of the Court to give Oyer of a Deed as of a Writ. Quere donc (says the Reporter) le Reason del Difference enter Oyer de Brief & Oyer de Fait. Vide 2 Lut. 1644.

Obj. 1. Upon the Argument, an Exception was taken to the Declaration, because it was not averr'd that the Executors were within the Age of Seventeen Years, but generally que deius Age; Sed non allocatur, for the Defendant by his Plea had admitted the Authority of the Plaintiff to bring the Action.

2. But the chief Exception was, That the Virtute cuius, &c. was traversed by the Plaintiff in his Replication, which, as was alledged, was Matter in Ley, and therefore the Traverse ill, and so was the Opinion of the Chief Justice; but the other Three Judges were of a contrary Opinion, and thereupon the Plaintiff had Judgment. Vide 1 Lut. 632.

Where a voluntary Escape by the Gaoler shall not prejudice the Plaintiff.

Note, That upon a Scire Facias for the Execution of a Judgment, the Defendant pleaded that he was taken on an Execution upon the same Judgment, and brought to the Bar, and committed in Execution, and afterwards voluntarily permitted by the Gaoler to escape. Upon which the Plaintiff demurr'd, and had Judgment: 1. For that he had not concluded the Commitment prout patet per Recordum, for that is Matter of Record, and ought to be so pleaded; but Writs need not to be so pleaded, although they are Matters of Record, because they may be lost, and perhaps they are never return'd. 2. A voluntary Escape by a Gaoler, without the Assent of the Plaintiff, shall not prejudice the Plaintiff, but that he may bring a new Execution, as 1. Gro. Mounson vers' Clayton, and Robinson vers' Clayton; and so it was adjudged Mich. 19 Car. 2. int' Simpson & Hunt, but Trin. 21. dubitatur, inter Crane & King. Vide 1 Lev. Rep. 211.

Upon an Escape, Return, and second Escape,

SEE 2 Lut. Ent. 132. Where 'tis held, That a Prisoner escaping in the Time of a former Gaoler, and returning into Prison, and there remaining in the Time of a new Gaoler, and then escaping again, the Plaintiff may charge the new or the old Gaoler at his Election.

Where the Execution was for less than recover'd.

Vide 2 San. 101. Where the Plaintiff had recovered 55 l. 10 s. and the Ca. sa' upon which the Defendant was taken in Execution was only 51 l. 2 s. and the Plaintiff in an Action of Debt for an Escape recovered against the Sheriff the said 55 l. 10 s. it's said this Mistake in the Execution is not assignable for Error.

The Condition runs thus :

THE Condition of this Obligation is such, That if the above-bounden C. C. do appear at the next County-Court to be holden at A. and then and there do prosecute his Action with Effect against W. R. for wrongful taking and detaining his Cattle, to wit, Two Oxen as is alledged, and do make Return thereof, if Return shall be adjudged by Law, and also do save and keep harmless the said Sheriff, his Under-Sheriff, and Bailiffs, for, touching, and concerning the Delivery of his said Cattle, then this Obligation to be void, or else to be in Force.

Judic' pro Quer'.

Judgment was given by the whole Court, That the Bond was good, and made according to the common Practice.

The Defendant was chosen to be a Bailiff of the Town, and refused to serve the Office and being a Protestant Dissenter, he pleaded as above; and in the Argument of this Case
Sir John Read's Case was cited, who was made Sheriff of Hertfordshire, and being then under Excommunication could not receive the Sacrament, and therefore after he had held the Office for Three Months left off, and did not attend at the Assizes, for which he was fined 500*l.* And after Argument in the Exchequer, where

where it was insisted on, That the Act of 25 Car. 2. made for preventing of Dangers that might arise from Popish Recusants, did void the said Office upon his not having taken the Sacrament, and he was disabled to do it by reason of his Excommunication; yet he was adjudged in the Exchequer to pay the 500*l.* Fine.

But the Court held here that the Matter pleaded by the Defendant was a good Bar; good. for in regard the Act of 13 Car. 2. had enacted, That none should be chosen who had not receiv'd the Sacrament within One Year before such Choice, and there could be no Refusal before the Election, it was plain that the Defendant had not incurr'd the Benefit of the By-Law; and it differ'd from the Case of Sir John Read, for he was once actually in the Office, and obliged thereupon to do all Things necessary for his proceeding in it; but here in this Case, to make a Default in the Defendant, there must have been an Election antecedent, and the Election of such an one as the Defendant is, is absolutely prohibited by the Statute.

Difference.

There were also Two Exceptions taken to the Declaration :

1. The By-Law is said to have been, That if any Inhabitant should be chosen; whereas they cannot make By-Laws to bind all the Inhabitants of the Town, but only the Freemen or Members of the Corporation.

Exceptions to the Narr.

2. The Usage is set forth, That the Election should be die Lune prox' post Festum sancti Mich' Arch'; and the Election of the Defendant is alledged to be upon the 30th of September, but it was not shewn that it fell upon the Monday; and that the Court cannot take §. Debt upon was brought for an Amercement in a Leet, and shews that the Defendant was present, and amerced, Quod quidem Amerciament afferat' fuit per omnes Jur' ad 40 s. The Defendant demurs generally; and by the Court the Declaration is not good:

2. The Afferement ought to be by Officers which are chosen by the Steward, and not by the Jury, and having a special Oath for that Purpose, as in Hob. 129. Wilson vers' Hardingham, in both Points: Whereupon Judgment was given for the Defendant. Vide Lev. Ent. 62. & 3 Lev. Rep. 206.

Hereupon Verdict was given for the Plaintiff.
And it was afterwards moved in Arrest of Judg-

Observations.

And Page 140. the Reporter makes these Observations upon the Statute, viz.

1. That if a meer Layman is presented, yet it is not a meer Nullity, but he is Parson de Facto, &c. Dyer 292. b.

2. That there are some Precedents in which it is alledged, That the said Statute of 21 Hen. 8. was made at the Parliament inchoat' or tent' (which is all one) at Westminster, &c. And in Bond and Tricket's Case it was so pleaded; and therefore after Verdict for the Plaintiff, it was moved in Arrest of Judgment, that the Statute was misrecited because the Parliament commenced nenc'd at London, and so it was to have been pleaded, and thereupon Cur advisare vult. I have seen the Record of that Case (says the Reporter) between Tricket Plaintiff, and Bond Defendant, and there is a Demurrer in the Case to the Avowry of the Defendant; and because the Plaintiff did not appear at the Day given upon the Cur advisare vult, after the Demurrer the Plaintiff was nonsuited, so that much cannot be collected from that Case. But that in Burt and Rothwell's Case, in C. B. intrat' Hill' 8 W. 3. rot. 1068. this Point is determin'd; where in an Action on this Statute, after Verdict for the Plaintiff, it was moved in Arrest of Judgment, that the Statute was miscited for the Cause aforesaid, and so was the Opinion of the whole Court upon due Consideration, and that the Plaintiff could not have Judgment, for that he had concluded contra formam Statuti predict', where there was no such Statute, but it had been otherwise if he had concluded contra formam Statuti in hujusmodi Casu, &c. 3 Keb. 468. Palmer and Taylor's Case, & 847, & 848. And it was said by the Court, that the true and sure Pleading of this Statute was in Coke's Entries. See after.

How this Statute ought to be pleaded, and the Plea concluded.

He also further observes, That when a Statute is made at a Session of Parliament, held by Prorogation, the most brief and sure Way is to plead Qd' ad Session' Parliamenti tent', such a Day and Year at such a Place. Ford and Hunter's Case, 2 Cro. III. 4 Inst. 27.

But it was said, That the Charter being made long before the Statute of 5 Eliz. did not extend to the Point of using a Trade without being an Apprentice, but only to give Liberty to the Citizens and Freemen to sell their Merchandizes in any Place at their Pleasures, and Judgment was given pro Rege nisi, &c. Vide 1 Saund. 249. One Faulkner was indicted at the Sessions in Southwark upon the Statute for keeping a common Tippling-House in the Borough, but the Indictment concluded, as at Common Law, In contemptum dicti Domini Regis nunc Legumque suarum ac contra pacem dicti Domini Regis nunc Coronam & Dignitat' suas, &c. and not Contra formam Statuti, it being made an Offence by the Statutes 5 & 6 Ed. 6. cap. 25. & 3 Car. 1. c. 3. and for that it ought to have concluded Contra formam Statuti; and the Court was of the same Opinion, and for that Exception the Judgment was quashed.

Indictment quash'd for the ill Conclusion.

Note, By the Statute 33 H. 8. cap. 9. Placards were allowed to be granted for Gaming.

And Liberty to Justices of the Peace to enter the Gaming-houses, and imprison the Persons 'till Security given. Also Head-Officers of Cities, Boroughs, &c. were to make Search under Penalty of 48 s. for Default.

Officers may enter Gaming-Houses, &c.

Cheating at Cards.

Stat. 16 Car. 2. was enacted against cheating at Cards, Dice, or other Games.

Above 100 l. lost at one Meeting.

And gives a Remedy where one loses above 100 l. at one Meeting, and Forfeiture of Treble Value and Costs against the Winner; the Prosecution to be within a Year.

9 & 10 Ann. against Gaming, and 10 l. lost.

Another Statute was lately made against Gaming, viz. 9 & 10 Ann. and a Remedy given him that loses 10 l. Treble Value, with Costs; and if the Party will not sue, then one Moiety to the Informer, and the other to the Poor of the Parish.

Answer upon Oath.

Also the Party is to answer upon Oath, Bills for discovering the Sums of Money, or other Thing so won at Play; but the Party is to be indemnified upon Discovery and Repayment.

Forfeiture by such as cheat in Gaming.

A Forfeiture of Five Times the Value, by such as shall win by Fraud either in Playing or Betting above 10 l. at one Sitting, &c. with other Corporal Punishments.

Examination of suspected Persons.

A Clause for Justices to examine Persons suspected to live by Gaming, and for them to find Sureties.

Forfeiture if the Winner assaults the Loser.

There is also a Clause, That such Winner as shall assault the other Party, shall forfeit all his Goods, &c. and suffer Imprisonment for Two Years.

Liberty in the Queen's Palaces.

But by this Act Liberty is given for Gaming within Her Majesty's Palaces, so as such Playing be for Ready Money only.

Difference
 where the Suit is for the King, and where for the King and the Party.

Note, This Case is reported 3 Lev. 398. and it is there said to be twice argued; and it was then said for the Plaintiff, That this being the Suit of the King, an Attorney had no Privilege against him, but he might sue in what Court, and in what Manner he pleased, 9 H.6.
 44. Roll. Privilege 244. Rast. Ent. 206. upon the said Statute. To which it was answer’d and resolv’d by the Court, That so it is where the Suit is the Suit of the King, as upon Indictments, Informations, and Actions for the King alone: But here, although the King is to have Part of the Money recovered, yet it is the Suit of the Party, although for the King and himself. And in this Suit the Party may be nonsuited, he may have Tales without Warrant by the Attorney General; but where the King only has the Suit, he cannot be nonsuited, nor can any Tales be without the Attorney-General’s Warrant, as in 4 Leon. 46.
 Whereupon Judgment was, that the Writ should abate: Thus far the Report of Serjeant Levinz. But Serjeant Lutwyche, fo. 196. taking Notice of this Report, directs that for Authorities to prove that the Suit is the Suit of the In-former, which are not mentioned by the other.

ton and Taylor's Case. Cro. Eliz. 138. Hammond and Griffin's Case. Mo. 564. Agar and Candish's Case.

As to the Demurrer, and Joinder in Demurrer, as if the Plea of the Defendant had been a Plea in Bar, which, as it seems, ought not to have been, he refers to the Case of Pute and Nosworthy, 1 Ven. 135, 136, 137. Where you may observe it was agreed, That if a Man concludes a Plea in Abatement as in Bar, if it be against him that pleads it, Judgment peremptory is to be given. So if a Man begins a Plea in Abatement, Actionem non, &c. Judgment peremptory ought to be thereupon given. 1 Ven. 136. Vide 17 Aley's Rep. Shalmer vers' Slingsby.

As to the Demurrer, &c.

Where Judgment peremptory ought to be.

Serjeant Lutwyche further observes, That by the Statute 23 H. 6. Persons inheritable to the Office of Sheriff at the Time of making of the said Act, and also such Persons who had Freehold in the Office of Sheriff at the Time of making the said Act, and their Under-Sheriff and Clerks, are excepted out of the said Act. And in the Declaration it is averr'd, That the Defendant never had any Estate of Freehold, or any other Estate in the said Office of Under-Sheriff; which is to no Purpose: For the Exception as to this Matter extends only to the Office of Sheriff, and not to the Office of Under-Sheriff; for if the Sheriff himself had Freehold in his Office, the Under-Sheriff is excepted as his inferior Officer. But (says he) Quære, If there needs any such Averment? For it cannot be easily presumed, that the Estate of Freehold which was in Being at the Time of the making of the said Act, 23 H. 6. had Continuance to this Day.

Persons, &c. excepted out of the Act.

So their Inferior Officers.

It may not be improper here to add a Case of Privilege pleaded by an Attorney, as in 2 Lut. 1664, &c.

Bar per Attorn' per Privilege.

The Declaration was upon a Bond made to a Woman when Sole. The Defendant pleads Privilege as an Attorney of the Common Pleas. The Plaintiff replies, That for Five Years before the Original, the Defendant had not prosecuted or defended any Cause, but for that Time had withdrawn himself from the Exercise of his Office of an Attorney. Plaintiff joins as to Plea in Abatement of the Writ.

Defend' demurs.

Defendant demurs.

Plea allowed good, he being an Attorney on Record.

After several Exceptions to the Plea by the Plaintiff's Council, the Opinion of the Court was, That the Plea Prima facie was good, and that it was not avoided by the Replication; for as long as he remain'd Attorney on Record, he ought ought to have Privilege of an Attorney; and if he was unfit to continue an Attorney of the Court, the Court ought to have been moved to put him out of the Roll.

Another Exception was, That the Custom of the Attorneys was not well alledged in the Plea, as, Qd' nullus Attornatus compelleretur ad respond', &c. where it ought to be also, Nec a tempore quo, &c. compelli consuevit, which was rather a Custom in fieri than in facto. The Court said, they took Cognizance of the Privilege of the Attorney of the Court, and therefore it need not be so precisely alledged as other Customs: And Judgment was given pro Def', 2 Lut. 1667. Vide 2 Lut. 1592. It was there said by the Court, That upon a Demurrer to a Plea in Abatement, the Defects of the Declaration may not be examined.

How the Custom of Attorneys ought to be alledged.

Defects not examinable.

The Reporter adds, That in this principal Case of Sedgwick and Richardson, he always took it (till the Report of 3 Levinz.) that the Rule of Court was, That no Costs were to be given in the Case; that he had view'd the Record enter'd *Mich. 5 W. & M. Exception to the Conclusion of the Narr'.

The sole Question which was debated in the Case was, Whether the Declaration was good? And Two Exceptions were taken to it; First, That it concluded Contra formam Statuti, whereas it ought to be Contra formam Statutorum, because the Action is founded upon several Statutes, and refers to 3 Cro. 750. Dingley and Moor's Case, 2 Cro. 142. Broughton and Moor's Case, in Point. To this it was answer'd, That the Precedents are as the Declaration is here, Hern 509. Co. Ent. 569. b. Winch 522, 523, 524, 526, 527, & 660. 1 Brownl. 135.

Exception,
That the Declaration
was too general.

locatur.*

Another Exception was, That the Declaration was too general, and not according to the Precedents, by which it is shewn how the 20 l. per Mensen is forfeited, viz. so much to the King, so much to the Informer, and so much to the Poor. But to that it was answer'd, That the Precedents are both Ways, and the Court will take Notice how the Forfeiture is to be distributed.

Note, The Reporter observes this Case was twice argued, Et Cur' advisare vult, and that he could not by any Means discover what Event it had.

How the Declaration
ought to conclude:

But the Case of West, in Owen 135. seems (as he says) to be a strong Case, that the Declaration ought to conclude Contra formam Statutorum. He adds, that he caused the Court-Book and the Remembrance to be seached, and by them it appears not that any Judgment was ever given in the Case; and that he had so so often lost his Labour in searching the Rolls of the Court, that he was discouraged to search if any Judgment was enter'd on the Roll. Vide Lut. 212.

Upon rescuing a Distress of Corn.

Note, Upon an Action upon the Statute of Notice, when 2 W. & M. for rescuing a Distress of not necessary. Corn taken for Rent, after Verdict for the Plaintiff, upon Motion in Arrest of Judgment, it was said and resolv'd, That forasmuch as the Defendants were Trespassers, no Notice of the Distress was necessary to be given to them; for the Intent of the Act is, That the Owner of the Goods distrain'd, should have Notice to bring his Replevin.

2. That Corn thrash'd or unthrash'd may well be distrain'd.

3. That a Lease for a Year, Et sic de anno Lease from in annum qui diu ambabus partibus placuerit, is a Year to Year, &c. good Lease for Two Years at the least, secundum, 6 Co. 35. b. 3 Cro. 775. 1 Syd. 427. & 1 Mod. Rep. 3.

That this Action is founded upon a Tort, and not upon the Right of the Land; and the Demise, &c. is only an Inducement to the Action, and the Tort is the principal Matter; and therefore the Venue shall be laid where the Tort is done, according to 3 Cro. Sidenham versus Robins, Noy 9. Banning's Case, 3 Cro. 427, & 571. Hob. 305. & Hutt. 39. And Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Vide 1 Lut. 213, &c. Action, where to be laid.

Observations, &c.

NOte, It's said, Durefs is not intended, but where the Party was wrongfully imprisoned till he make the Bond, 3 Leon. 239. When Durefs is intended.

It is no Plea, that it was done by Durefs by a Stranger, without making the Obligee Party to the Durefs. Kiel. 154. a. If by a Stranger.

If the Defendant pleads the Obligation was made by Durefs of Imprisonment, and by Menace of Imprisonment, it's double, 1 Com. 140. a. 19 Ed. 4. 4. declares, That the Obligation was made to B. it's a good Plea for the Defendant to say that the Obligation was made to S. by Durefs, without any Traverse, for this is but Matter of Supposal, 22 Ed. 4. 40. by Jenny. Double Plea. Traverse.

The Defendant pleads Durefs of Imprisonment; its no good Replication for the Plaintiff to say, That he menac'd to bring a Suit against him for Arrears of Rent according to Law, and by Process of Law to imprison him if he can, unless he would seal the Obligation; for this is not any Answer to the Bar, 16 Ed. 4. 7. b. Repl', no Answer to the Bar.

The Defendant pleads Durefs: The Plaintiff saith, To this he shall not be receiv'd, for that after, such a Day after the Date of the Obligation, the Obligation was inroll'd in Chancery. Cur' pro Quer'. In such Case he may not deny his Deed. 16 H. 7. 5. Repl', that the Bond was inrolled.

The Husband may avoid the Deed that he hath sealed by the Durefs of the Imprisonment of his Wife or Son, but not of his Servant. So Mayor and Commonalty may avoid a Deed sealed by Durefs of Imprisonment of the Mayor, 2 Brownl. 276. Durefs per Uxor', &c.

Where the Prisoner was no Relation.

ff. The Defendant pleads, That Roberts was imprison'd, and this Bond was given by him and the Defendant for Inlargement. The Plaintiff demurr'd. Judgment pro Quer', this Roberts being no Father, Husband, Wife, or near Relation, in which Cases the Bond would be void, 3 Keb. 238. Warn & Sandowne, Durefs Bro. 9.

Where the Defendant was charged for stealing his own Horse.

ff. Durefs pleaded: And the Case on the Evidence was, The Plaintiff charged the Defendant with Felony for stealing a Horse, and procured a Warrant from a Justice of Peace, whereby he was taken; and being in Custody, upon Promise of the Plaintiff to discharge him, sealed the Bond, and thereupon was immediately discharged. And it appeared that the Horse was the Defendant's own Horse; and Roll directed the Jury that the Bond was gotten by Durefs, these Proceedings being but to cover the Deceit. Alleyn, p. 92.

Durefs where the Bond was sealed.

ff. Debt upon a Bond in an inferior Court, Durefs was pleaded, and no Place certain alleged: This may be ill upon a special Demurrer, but it is well after a Verdict, there being a Place where the Obligation was made infra Jurisdictionem; and the Party cannot plead Durefs, unless where the Bond was actually sealed. 2 Keble 630. Cubit and Green.

Action confessed, Judgment revers'd.

ff. The Defendant after Issue de Durefs at the Assize, relicta Verificatione dic' qd' ipse non potest decere Actionem, &c. Vide the Form of the Entry, and the Error was decere for dedicere, and revers'd. Cro. Jac. 343.

The Issue was per Minas, and the Jury find Durefs plead-it was per metum Imprisonament. Per Cur, the ed specially.
Durefs ought to be pleaded specially, but the Verdict being that the Plaintiff threaten'd, Qd imprisonaret Def' & crimen feloniam ei imponeret nisi, &c. it is ill, being no more than by Law he may charge him with. 1 Keb. 516. Picard and Lawrence.

The Defendant pleads he made it per Minas Cogn'Action' de vita, &c. The Plaintiff said he did it spon- tanea voluntate, and traversed the Minas. The Defendant Cognovit Actionem. Vide the Entry,

Moor, n. 921. Foyner and Ognell.

In the 1 Lev. Rep. 68. it is said Durefs cannot If Durefs may be where the Person is in Prison by the King's be where the Writ. An Audita Querela was brought upon a Party is in Release given after Judgment: The Issue was, Prison by the that the Release was made per Durefs; and it King's Writ.
 being tried before Bridgman Chief Justice of the Common-Pleas, the Evidence was, That the Defendant not having good Cause of Action caused the Plaintiff to be arrested, and de-tain'd in Prison till he made the Release, with Threatenings that he should lie and rot if he would not seal the Release; whereupon he made the Release, and was presently discharg'd.
 And by Bridgman, he being in Custody in Course of Law by the King's Writ, it was not a Durefs to be pleaded in Avoidance of the Deed; but that being arrested without Cause
 of

of Action, he had his Remedy by an Action on the Case: But he offer'd to have it found specially, if Baldwin would desire it; but he did not, and the Jury gave their Verdict that the Release was good. Id. Lev. 69.

Traverse.

It is said, That if an Infant submits himself to an Arbitrement, it is voidable, for he may wave it if it be to his Prejudice during his Minority; but if he do any Thing which amounts to an Agreement at his full Age, it shall bind him. Noy, pag. 93. Stone and Knight, Latch 21.

A Bond bears Date when the Defendant was within Age, but it was sealed and deliver'd at full Age; the Time of making the Bond shall be when the Bond is sealed, and not when it bears date. 1 Brownl. Rep. 31.

Debt on a Bond dated the 20th Junii, and delivered the 18th of said Month. The Defendant pleads by Protestation, it was delivered the 18th Day, Absque hoc, that at that Time he was of full Age, Noy, p. 34.

It is said, That if the Bond be of excessive Value, the Infant may traverse, Absque hoc, that it was for necessary Apparel, and the Plaintiff must reply specially, and shew the Bond to be suitable to the Price of the Things; and it is query'd, If in such Case the Jury ought to find Non est factum. 1 Keb. fo. 416.

But see 1 Lev. 86. Where Debt was brought upon a single Bill, the Defendant pleaded, that the Bill was made by him when within Age. The Plaintiff replied, That it was for necessary Victuals and Cloaths deliver'd to him, and suitable to his Quality. The Defendant demurr'd: And it was argued for the Defendant, That the Bill was void as well as a Bond, but Contract or Promise for Necessaries is good. Secondly, That it was not averr'd that they were deliver'd to him to his own Use, and therefore cited 2 Cro. Ives v. Chester, where such an Exception is allowed to be good. But it was said on the other Side, That a single Bill for Necessaries is good, but a Bond with a Penalty not, and cited Co. Litt. 172. a. 3 Cro. 920. And so the Court held. And as to the second Exception it was said, That in Poph. Rep. of the Case of Ives and Chester, it was disallow'd: And so the Court held here that the Exception was not good; for when the Things are deliver'd to him, and suitable to his Quality, it cannot be intended but that they were for his own Use. And Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, nisi.

Obligation

lue.

Note, In Crook, Hill. 45 Eliz. 920. The Plaintiff had paid Money for the Necessaries of the Infant, and took Bond in double the Sum, it was therefore said to be void; otherwise, if he had taken Obligation for the very Sum. 26 H. 8. 2.

Where the Infant af-firm'd himself to be of full Age.

There is a Case in 1 Levinz. 169. Johnson vers' Pie: For that the Defendant being an Infant affirm'd himself to be of full Age, and by that Means the Plaintiff lent him 100*l.* and that so he had cheated the Plaintiff by his false Affirmation. After Verdict for the Plaintiff upon Non Cul', and 100*l.* Damages, it was moved in Arrest of Judgment, That the Action did not lie for such a false Affirmation, but that the Plaintiff ought to have informed himself by others, and cited Grove and Nevil's Case to be adjudg'd in C. B. 16 Car. 2. where in a Case against an Infant for selling a false Jewel, affirming it to be a true one, adjudged that the Action did not lie. To which it was answer'd, That it is a Trespass upon the Case, and that an Infant is chargeable for Trespasses, although not for Contracts. Keeling and Windham held that the Action did not lie, because the Affirmation being by an Infant was void, and is not like unto Trespass, Felony, &c. for there is a Fact done. Twisden dubitavit, for Infants are chargeable for Trespafs. Dyer 105.

Infants

And so if he cheats a Man with false Dice:

If the Contract be for Meat, Drink, or Learning, Case will lie on the Promise; and although it be not mentioned what Learning, yet that is fit for him, until on the other Part it be shew'd to the contrary; and although he to whom the Promise is made doth not intrust him himself, but pays another for it, the Promise of Repayment is said to be good, 1 *Roll. Testator surviv'd. The Defendant pleads Non est factum: It's an ill Plea; for it was his Deed, and the Matter of Variance goes to the Abatement of the Writ, and not to the Action, and it's too late for the Defendant to take Advantage of it, Stiles 78. Holdish and Chase. If the Defendant had demanded Oyer of the Deed,

the Declaration. Allen, p. 41. the same Case.

Manner as the Plaintiff hath declared? Per Cur',
The Plaintiff ought to have declared of the special Matter; Non est factum in this Case is no good Plea, for he hath not pleaded it respective as to the Obligation, but generally, Non est factum suum, which refers to the Obli-gor only; and the Issue is not whether he made the Deed to the Plaintiff or not, but generally whether he made it all. This Plea, Non

Non est factum, hath not any Respect to the Obligee; for if the Obligee be a Monk, and there be another Person who bears the Name of the Obligee, yet in such Cases the Obligor cannot safely plead Non est factum. Aliter, where one is sued who bears the Name of the Obligor, 1 Leon. p. 322. Case 453. Dennis and St. John.

Four bound
nostrum.*

If Four are bound in an Obligation by these Words [Et utrumque nostrum], the Obligee may charge any of these severally, but if he will have a joint Action of Debt against Two of the Four, the Writ shall abate; for if the Plaintiff will charge them jointly, the other Two which are not named shall be charged also with them jointly by the same Deed, 10 H. 7. 16. 34 E. 3. Dyer 129.

Jointly bound, but severally
sealed, &c.

If Two are bound by joint Words, and every of them by himself puts his Seal to the Deed, this shall not make the Obligation several, 10 H. 7. 16. So if it be in the Name of Two joint and several, and they severally deliver it at several Times and Places, this is yet joint and several. 8 H. 6. 31.

If Two bind themselves vel alter eorum, this makes the Obligation joint or several, 7 H. 4. 6. b.

2 bind quem-libet nostrum.

If Two bind themselves Et quemlibet nostrum, this is joint or several, 2 Rolls Abr. 148.

nostrum.*

If Two bind themselves Vel utrumque nostrum, this is joint or several, for this Word [Vel] makes it several at Election, 2 Rolls Abr. 148. 1 Brownl. Rep. p. 121. Cro. Jac. 322. 2 Bulstr. 70.

Three bound jointly and severally, and Debt against
Two.

Three were bound jointly and severally in one Bond, and the Obligee brought Debt against Two; this he cannot do, but he may have one Præcipe against the Three, or several *Præcipe*s

Præcipe's against every one, 27 H. 8. 6. Et singulari nostrum, 1 Brownl. 121. is joint or several.

Three were bound in a Bond by these Words, Obligamus nos & quemlibet nostrum conjunctim, it's a joint Bond, and not several; for the Word [Quemlibet] is expounded by the Word [Conjunctim], 3 Leon. p. 206. Wigmore and Wells. Mo. p. 390.

Though sundry Persons may bind themselves Et quemlibet eorum, and so the Obligation shall be joint or several at the Election of the Oblige; yet a Man cannot bind himself to Three, and to each of them, to make it joint or several at the Election of several Persons for one and the same Cause, for the Court would be in Doubt for which of them to give Judgment, which the Law will not suffer, 5 Rep. p. 18. b.

Joint Bond by Three, and the Count general: The Jointure appearing upon Oyer demanded, the Court will intend the others are dead, or not sealed; had the Declaration been in a joint Bond, the Plaintiff must aver the Death of the others, or that they never had sealed, 1 Keb. 936. 840. See the First of bound. 271. Cabel and Vaughan, where the Two others were named upon a joint Bond, yet it appear'd not that they had put their Seals to it, and so the Obligation was single; but if the other Two had sealed as well as the Defendant, then if the Defendant would have taken Advantage of this, he ought not to have demurred, but to have pleaded in Abatement, that the other Two Persons had sealed the Obligation, being yet alive, and so pray Judgment of the Bill.

If Two are bound jointly, and one is only sued, he may plead this Matter in Abatement of the Writ; but he may not plead Non est factum,

Three bound, Et quemlibet nostrum conjunctim.

One cannot bind himself to Three, and to each of them.

Non est factum after a Deed razed. Per Cur', 1. When a lawful Deed is razed, by which it becomes void, the Obligor may pleaded Non est factum, and give the Matter in Evidence; for at the Time of the Plea pleaded it is not his Deed.

Deed altered without the Privy of the Obligee. 2. When any Deed is alter'd in a Point material by the Plaintiff himself, or by any Stranger, without the Privy of the Obligee, be it by Addition, Razing, Interlineation, or drawing a Pen through the Midst of any material Word, by this the Deed becomes void: As if one be bound in 10 l. and after Sealing, 10 l. is added to make it 20 l. it's void.

If in Words not material by a Stranger. So if the Obligee himself alter the Deed by any of the said Ways, though it be in Words not material, yet the Deed is void: But if a Stranger without his Privy alter it in a Place not material, it shall not be void. And so in the Principal Case, the Addition being in Point not material, and by a Stranger, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Benedict Winch-

As to this Matter it is said, That if an Obligation be delivered to another to the Use of the Obligee, and this is tender'd to him, and he refuse it, in such Case the Delivery hath lost its Force, and the Obligee may never after agree to this, and therefore the Obligor may say, Non est factum. Defeasance.

§. ' Simile sub Conditione, Qd' Quer' faceret Indenturam Defeasancie, 9 Co. 137.

Notes as to the Delivery of a Bond, &c. as an Escrow or Schedule.

How the Plea may conclude.

IN the 3d of Keb. 142. Manning and Bucknal, the Defendant pleads it was delivered as an Escrow, Et issint non est factum, Et hoc paratus est verificare. The Plaintiff demurs to the Conclusion. Per Cur', This is a Plea that may conclude either Way, and is most usual with this Conclusion, though generally upon a general al Negative Plea, it must conclude to the Country, as Non assumpsit infra sex Annos. Judic' pro Def'.

Sed vide 3 Keb. 26. 30. Forth and Fletcher, Edwards and Webb, where it is said, That of later Time it is adjudg'd, that he must conclude to the Country; and so upon a special Denurrer, Quia minus apte conclusit. 2 Keb. 805.

The Defendant pleads, That he was illiterate, and that the Bond was falsely read to him; and further, That it was delivered as an Escrow, and the Condition not perform'd. Et issint non est factum. Per Cur', This is not double, because he concludes Non est factum, 38 H. 6. 26, 27.

Note, An Obligation cannot be delivered as an Escrow unto the Obligee himself; but it may be delivered to another to the Use of an Obligee as an Escrow: For the Delivery of it to the Obligee himself, and his receiving it, makes it work as a Deed in the very Instant of the Delivery of it, according to the Effect of a Deed; but being deliver'd to another to the Use of the Obligee, it cannot operate so, because he is no Party to the Deed, nor can take any Thing by it, and doth but only take it as an Escrow, and as an Instrument to deliver to the Obligee at such Time, and in such Manner as the Obligor shall direct; and if he deliver it otherwise, the Obligor may plead Non est factum. Stiles Pract' Reg' last publ. 180.

And therefore an Obligation may not be deliver'd as an Escrow to the Party himself, upon Condition to be his Deed upon special Delivery, for this is absolute, being made to the Party himself; for Delivery is sufficient without speaking Words, and when the Words are contrary to the Act, they are of no Effect.

How it may be deliver'd as an Escrow, &c.

But not to the Party himself.

Effect. Co. Litt. 36. a. 9 Rep. 136, 137. Thoroughgood's Case, Hob. p. 246. Holford and Parker, More, n. 836. Williams and Green.

Where the Repl^r makes the Plea good.

Again, that though the Plea, that he delivered it to the Plaintiff as an Escrow to be his Deed upon Performance of a Condition, be not good; yet being pleaded, and replied to, and admitted for good, and Issue being join'd, and found false, the Verdict is good, and Judgment well given. Vide Croo. Jac. 85. Blunden and Wood.

Q If first delivered to the Party as a Deed, or as an Escrow, upon a Condition precedent.

Yet here is a Quære made in the Case following, viz. That if a Deed be delivered to the Party himself first, as his Deed upon Condition, the Deed is absolute; but when it is first deliver'd as an Escrow, though to the Party himself, it is not his Deed till it be perform'd: As where one brings an Obligation to me, and prays me to deliver it as my Deed, and I say, Do such a Thing, and take it as my Deed, otherwise not, it is clear it is not my Deed until the Thing perform'd; for here the Condition is precedent, so as it was not his Deed until it was perform'd. And therefore a conditional Delivery may be averr'd sans Writing; but if once deliver'd as his Deed, it cannot afterwards be defeated, if the Condition be not in Writing. Quer' Cro. Eliz. 825. Hawksland vers' Gatchell, contra Cro. Eliz. p. 884. Williams and Green.

To deliver it ut scriptum
factum.

The Defendant pleads the Writing was his, and delivered to one W. as a Schedule until certain Conditions perform'd, and then to deliver it to the Plaintiff ut scriptum, and saith not ut factum; yet per Cur', all is one in Construction of Law, 2 Keb. 690, 733. Twiford and Barnard.

Per Hale, An Escrow may be given in Evidence on Non est factum, as well as Suspension in Nil debet, in Manning and Bucknal's Case, Keb. 142.

If a Man be obliged to perform Things in such a Deed, it is no Plea to say he deliver'd this as an Escrow, &c. Et issint non est factum. 1 Roll. Rep. per Co. 84. in Fletcher and Tarrer's Case. If the Defendant is obliged to perform Things.

It is observ'd, That the Party delivering must use these or such like Words, viz. I deliver this to you as an Escrow, to deliver to the Party as my Deed, upon Condition that he deliver you 20 l. for me, or upon Condition that he deliver up the old Bond he hath of mine for the same Money, or the like, as the Case is; and not to say, I deliver this to you as my Deed, and that you shall deliver it to the Party upon certain Conditions; for in such Case it will take Effect presently, &c. And that therefore it must be deliver'd to a Stranger with the like Expressions as before, as an Escrow, and not as a Deed. Perk. Sect. 240, &c. Kehw. 88. Co. Litt. 36, 48. Words to be used upon a Delivery as an Escrow.

Seal broken, &c.

Note, As the Seal of a Deed being broken off, it is to be observ'd, That if Two are bound in a Bond, and the Seal of one is broken off, this Mifeasance, ex post facto, shall avoid the Deed against both. 11 Rep. 27. Pigrot's Case. Ex post facto.

The Defendant pleaded Non est factum Testatoris; and a special Verdict was, That the Testator was bound in that Bond with Two others jointly and severally, and that afterwards the Seals of the Two others were eaten with Mice and Rats. The whole Deed is said to be avoided by this, for it is not the same Deed; Seals eaten with Mice and Rats.

Where the Deed is several only.

Deed; and whereas it was joint at the first now if the Deed should stand good against the Defendant only, it should be his Bond only, it is not an Obligation joint and several but joint or several at the Election of the Oblige, for he cannot use both, and when by his own Laches he hath deprived himself of his Election, the whole Bond is gone. But in Mathewson's Case, 5 Rep. the 100 l. are several, and not joint; and therefore if the Seal of one is torn off, it shall not avoid the Deed as to the others and there if the Covenantor release to one of the Covenantors, it shall not discharge the others. March Rep. 125. Bayly and Garford.

A Seal re-affix'd.

The Defendant pleads that it was sealed by him and one W. C. and that after the Sealing the Seal of W. C. was worn off, and after re-affixed, per quod scriptum predict' vacuum in Leg existit. Per Cur', It's better to plead this special Matter, than Non est factum, Noy, pag. 112. Gomercl and Wood.

Seal pull'd off after Issue join'd.

The Issue was, Non est factum. The Jury did find the Defendant did seal and deliver it but that after the Day of the Issue join'd, the Seal was pull'd off from the Obligation. Judic' pro Quer'. Cro. Eliz. 120. Michel's Case.

How a Stranger ought to plead.

It's said, A Stranger to a Deed shall not plead a special Non est factum, as that the Seal is removed from the Deed, Et issint, &c. but he ought to plead, Riens passa per le fait, 1 Roll. Rep. 188. More and Waldron.

Also, if the Deed of another be pleaded against a Stranger, he may not plead Non est factum, 20 Ed. 4. 1. a.

Where he must conclude *Non est
factum*.

Note, It is said, That in every Case where the Obligation is void, the Defendant shall conclude Non est factum. As a Feme Cove shall shall plead Non est factum, for it's void by her; so where a Deed is rased or interlined; so where the Obligor was not letter'd; otherwise where the Deed is only voidable, for there he shall shew the special Matter, and conclude Judgment Si Actio, 1 H. 7. 15. Downes's Case.

As an Infant pleads at the Time of making the Bond he was within Age, he shall not conclude Iffint non est factum, but Judgment Si Actio. Not where the Deed is only voidable.

When the Deed is voidable, and so remains at the Time of Pleading, (as in case of Sealing a Bond by an Infant or Duress,) here he cannot plead Non est factum, but it must be avoided by special Pleading, with concluding Judgment Si Actio, 5 Rep. 119. He must conclude Judgment Si Actio, &c.

And when an Obligation, or other Writing, is by Act of Parliament enacted to be void, the Party who is bound cannot plead Non est factum, but must plead the special Matter, and conclude Judgment Si Actio: As on Bond made to the Sheriff against 23 H. 6. cap. 10. or a Bond made against the Statute of Usury, 5 Rep. 119. Hob. 72. 166. If Deed be void by Act of Parliament.

If a Defendant pleads Non est factum, and further demurs upon the Obligation, the Demurrer is void, per Prisot, 35 H. 6. 9. b. Plea and Demur.

After Non est factum pleaded, the Party shall give the special Matter in Evidence, 11 Rep. Piggot's Case, 2 Mar. Dyer 112. Evidence.

Debt was against G. B. Exec' of S. B. on a Bond made by S. B. Defendant, ven' & defend' vim & injur', &c. Et dic' qd' scriptum pre-dict' non est factum suum. There is no Mention made of S. B. in all the Bar, and therefore suum cannot refer to him; but being after a Verdict, and found to be his Deed, Judic' pro Quer', Latch. p. 123. Baker's Case. Executor pleads Non est factum suum.

Where

Deed inroll'd.

Where a Deed is inrolled, the Party may not plead Non est factum, but he may say Rien passa per le fait. 9 H. 6. 60.

Judgment, how to be enter'd.

Upon Non est factum pleaded, and found against him that it was his Deed, the Judgment was enter'd Qd' sit in Misericordia, where it ought to have been Qd' capiatur. Per Cur. This is a manifest Error; but if the Executor plead Non est factum, Misericordia shall be enter'd, 2 Bulst. 230. Jones and Cross, 1 Keb. 196. Ellison's Case.

Relicta verificatione cognov. Action'.

The Defendant pleads Non est factum, and at the Nisi prius, Relicta verificatione cognovit Actionem. Judgment that the Plaintiff shall recover, and the Defendant in mia', and not qd' capiatur, Noy, p. 4. Barvage and Clarke.

It is said, The Defendant shall not wage Law against an Attorney, because the Court compels him to be Attorney for the Party, and is no voluntary Retainer; otherwise, if it be upon a Suit in a base Court, for there he is bound to be his Attorney. 21 Hen. 6. 4. Pl. 5.

And how this ought to be pleaded as to the Form of the Custom and Matter of Law
Idem 206, 207, &c.

Note, The Practicers in London have said
 That the Foreign Attachment ought to be made before any other Action brought for the Debt.

Also, that a Man may attach Money in his own Hands, but that it will not bar another Action, either entred in the Sheriffs Court or sued out before against the Creditor; Also that the Creditors Debt ought to be more than any other Debt he owed the Plaintiff, &c.
Quære.

Bar al Debt per Statute Ley.

IT may be observed, That the Statutes hereafter mentioned are pleaded before upon Covenants in Indentures, in the Fourth Part of Instructer Clericalis, viz.

1. Stat. 13 & 18 Eliz. of making a Lease by a Prebendary, Page 51. Numb. 4.

2. The Statute of Non-residence pleaded in Bar by a Vicar, Pag. 143. Numb. 47.

3. The Stat. 13 Car. 2. for not reading the Common-Prayer, &c. Pag. 147. Numb. 48.

4. That the Plaintiff was a Bankrupt, and that Defendant paid the Money to the Assignees, 154, 157. bis Numb. 49.

5. Stat. 32 H. 8. That a Lease made to an Alien is void, &c. Pag. 167. Numb. 52.

6. Stat. 5 Eliz. Concerning a Mariner's Apprentices, &c. Pag. 199. Numb. 64.

Stat. 5 Eliz. That the Father of the Apprentice had not 40 s. per Annum, &c. Pag. 202. Numb. 65. Also Bar by the said Statute upon a Bond to perform Covenants in an Indenture of Apprenticeship, pag. 206. Aliter pag. 209.

7. The Statute of Composition pleaded for Two Thirds in Number and Value: Vide 4 Part, Instr. Clerical. fol. 309. Bar al Debt sur Bill.

8. The Act Primo Anne Regine, for Relief of Poor Prisoners, Ibid. fol. 318.

9. The Act 2 Anne Regine, to be discharged upon finding a Soldier, Id. fol. 324.

10. Aliter Statutes pleaded briefly, and Plaintiff acknowledges the Matter pleaded, and prays Judgment, according to the Statute, and has it. Id. 334.

11. Stat. 23 Hen. 6. pleaded to Bail Bonds, &c. Vide hic ante Bar in Debt sur Obl' Vic' & al' Officicar'.

12. 13 Car. 2. That none should be chosen into Offices, &c. who had not taken the Sacrament within one Year before such Choice. Vide ante, Bar in Debt sur Amerciament.

Next, I will give you a Precedent of the Act for exempting Protestant Dissenters, where the Defendant pleads, He had not taken the Sacrament according to former Acts, &c.

Information.

Bar per 13
Car. 2.

Notice given to the Mayor

THE Information was, 4 Will. & Marie. for that the Defendant being chosen Sheriff for the City of Norwich, would not take the Oaths, &c. to qualifie him for the Office, nor would take upon him the said Office. Clift. fol. 404. Numb. 28. Idem fol. 406. Defendant pleads the Stat. 13 Car. 2. to disable such Persons to be chosen into Offices who had not taken the Sacrament within one Year before such Choice; and then pleads, That he was a Protestant Dissenter, and had given the Mayor, &c. Notice that he had not taken the Sacrament, &c. but avers that he had taken the Oath Primo W. & M. and had subscribed the Declaration in 30 Car. 2. to prevent Papists from sitting in either House of Parliament, &c.

Upon this Plea, it is observed in the Margent, fol. 407. viz. Actus pro exemptione Protestant *estant? Subditorum a penis quarundum Legum hic imponi debuit ut aliqui dicunt. Again, Locum Observatidissentendi allegasse debuit ut dicit quidam Eruditus, ons.

ulius tamen contradicit, Idem. 407.*

Then, fol. 408. numb. 28. the Attorney-General replies, That the Defendant, as a Repl.
Member of the Church of England, ought to have taken the Sacrament Annuatim & quolibet Anno, and that he ought not to excuse himself thro' his own Default: Then the Defendant, by Rejoinder, numb. 29. pro Rejo.
estando, That he ought not to have taken the Sacrament Annuatim & quolibet Anno. Pro Placito pleads the Act for exempting Protestant Dissenters. The Attorney-General demurs to Demurr.
the Rejoinder, fol. 409. and the Defendant joins in Demurrer. Id. fol. 410. numb. 27.
Note, These Numbers are misnumbered.

Again: Afterwards at fol. 410. numb. 28.
A Plea is entred for the Defendant to the Information, protestando that the Information is insufficient; pro Placito pleads the 13 Car. 2.
as before, fol. 412. The Attorney-General replies as before, numb. 29. and numb. 30.
The Defendant, by Rejoinder, pleads the Act as follows:

The Act for exempting Protestant Dissenters, pleaded by Way of Rejoinder to an Information.

and the Defendant joins in Demurrer.

Upon the Argument of the Case, these Points were debated:

This Case not within the Stat. being a meer collateral Matter.

1. Whether this Case was within the Statute 16 Car. 2. cap. 7. but the Opinion of the Court clearly was, That it was not with the Statute, because it was a meer collateral Matter, and which happened on a Chance, and the Event of it did not depend upon the Success of the Game; and also the Act expressly prohibits Wagers upon the Sides or Hands of the Players, and if they had intended any other Wagers, 'tis probable Mention would have been made of them.

That no
Place was alleged.

2. The second Objection was made by the Defendant to the Declaration, viz. That no Place was alleged where the Groom-Porter gave his Judgment; but the Plaintiff's Council said there was a Place alleged, because it is said that the Groom-Porter did give Judgment, and that the said 100 Guineas were of such a Value, &c. Apud paroch' sci Martini predict'. And that if the Place had been omitted, yet the Declaration was good notwithstanding, because the Defendant had confess'd the Fact, and then that Fault was cured. Secundum, Hob. 82. Yelv. 11. 2 Cro. 682. and therefore that Objection was disallowed by the Court.

That no
appeared.

3. A third Objection was made, That it did not appear by the Declaration that the Groom-Porter had given any Judgment on the Case, because it is not alleged that the stated Case was tendered to him, or that he had given his Judgment thereon.

To which the Plaintiff's Council answered, That it appeared by the Declaration there was a Wager made between the Parties, and what it was; and then it is also alleged that the Groom-

Groom-Porter had adjudged in the Case, and also that by his Judgment the Matter was determined for the Plaintiff. which was sufficient; Judic' per and the Plaintiff had Judgment by Consent Quer' of the whole Court.

Afterwards a Writ of Error was brought, Error and it was insisted for the Plaintiff in the Error; brought.

That an Action in the Debet and Detinet (as Obj. That the Case is) did not lie for the 107 l. 10 s. for Debet and Detinet did not lie. that the Court could not take Notice that a Guinea is above the Value of 20 s. tho' by the way of Commerce, and mutual Compact, it passed for 1 l. 1 s. 6 d. but that would not raise the Value of the Coin, and therefore the Demand ought to be only of 100 l. or of 100 Guineas, with an Averment of the Value of them; he agreed the Cases of Foreign Coins, and that Debt lies for 60 l. monete Flandriae, which amounts to so much English, as 2 Cro. 88. Yelv. 80. 1 Leon. 41. But Latch 84. is, That a Declaration for English Money may not be ad Valenc'; He also agreed, that in Fen-cott and Burrough's Case, Trin. 5 W. & M. B. R. where the Action was in Case upon a Bill of Exchange for 55 Guineas, the Court adjudged for the Plaintiff, because the Jury might assess Damages according to the Rate then current; but it was otherwise in Debt, where the Plaintiff shall recover according to his Demand.

To this it was answered by the Defendant's R. That it Councel, That when one demands Foreign might lie. Coin in Specie, the Writ may be in the Detinet only; but when the value of it in English Money is demanded, it may be in the Debet and Detinet, and to this two Judges seemed to agree, and one held Guineas were as Foreign Coin.

2. It was moved, That this Case was within the Statute, tho' the Council did not much insist thereon.

3. It was objected, That it was not averr'd, That the 100 Guineas were not paid in Specie, as by Raft. 158. Yelv. 135. Poph. 28. 1 Cro. 515.

Obj. For want of Averment.

That the Plaintiff ought to have declared on the Deed and the Case also.

The Chief Justice said, The Declaration was ill, for the Plaintiff ought to have declared upon the Deed or Fact, and the Case also, and then have shewn that the Case was brought to the Groom-Porter, and that he had given his Judgment thereon; but here the Plaintiff had taken upon him to aver the Purport of the Case without producing it, which is not to be suffered; and tho' the Declaration, by way of Recital, had shewn the Substance of the Case, yet when it is in Writing, the Writing itself ought to be produced; as if A. and B. agree in Writing concerning the Purchase of Lands in F. and afterwards A. covenants with B. to assign him the Lands contain'd in the said Writing: If B. will bring an Action for the Breach of this Covenant, he cannot shew that A. covenanted to assign the Lands in F. but the Lands in the Writing, and to shew it, and that the Lands in the Declaration, and the Land in the Writing, are the same Lands without any Variance: And he inclined to reverse the Judgment for this Cause; and also for that the Plaintiff had not shewn, that the Guineas were not paid in Specie, but it was adjourned; and in Trin. 7 W. 3. the Chief Justice and Justice Eyre present, the Judgment was reversed, and the Chief Justice gave the Reason, because the Plaintiff had shewn the Case, and Play, and Wager, and then the Deed by which the Parties bound themselves in the said Wager ; and upon hearing of the Deed, it appear'd that it was to stand to the Judgment of the Groom Porter upon the Case stated and signed by us both, which is not the same, and therefore the Writing containing the Case ought to have been shewn, and an Averment taken, that the Case in it, and in the Declaration, were all one ; and altho' it was urged, that the Inducement of the Case, and that stated, are all one, and therefore whether the Averment was before the Deed, or after, was not material ; yet the Chief Justice was of another Opinion, because the Declaration supposed the Deed to be to perform the Wager comprized in the Deed, whereas it is to perform an Extrinsicical Case, and which is to be join'd by Averment, and for that Reason the Judgment was revers'd, as the Reporter was credibly inform'd. See also this Case in 5 Mod. Rep. Fol. 1, 2, 3, &c.

Exchange to be deducted.

Bar, that after the Bond the Plaintiff corruptly receiv’d of Defendant 30 l. for Forbearance of the 300 l.

Which is more than 6 l. per Cent.

Judic' pro
Quer', That the Plea was ill, the Bond not being for Payment of Money upon Usury.

Usurious Contract afterwards avoids not the Bond.

But Plaintiff had forfeited treble Value.

This Bond was dated 24 Maii, 19 Regis.
 After Oyer the Defendant pleads as above; and upon the Argument it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, That the Plea was not good, because the late Statute of Usury, 12 Car. 2. cap. 13.
 says, that all Bonds, &c. for Payment of any Principal, or Money to be lent, or covenanted to be perform'd, upon or for any Usury, whereupon or whereby there shall be reserv'd or taken above the Rate of 6*l. per Cent. per Ann.*
 shall be utterly void; so that the Bond that shall be void by this Clause, ought to be for Payment of Money upon or for Usury: But here the Bond was not for Payment of Money upon or for Usury, but for any Thing that appears to the contrary, it was made for the Payment of a just Debt, and so the Bond was good as it was made, then an usurious Contract afterwards cannot make the Bond void, which was good at the Time of making thereof: But it was true, that by such usurious Contract the Plaintiff had forfeited the treble Value by the latter Clause of the said Statute; but for all that, the Bond shall not be void, as is aforesaid.
Vide 1 Saund. 294, 295.

Upon a Bill of Bottomry.

See 1 Lev. 54. where upon a Bill of Bottomry, with excessive Interest, it was held the Statute was not pleadable: There being Three Contingents, it was objected, That the Defendant had Election to pay on which of them
 he would, and of one of them he was excus'd by the Death of the Obligor, and therefore excused of all. But it was resolved, that all those Things being contingent, and uncertain which of them should happen, the Law supplied the Words [which should first happen], and gave the Advantage of Action to the Obligee;
 and

and was not like a Case where one is bound to pay a Sum at Michaelmas. or Lady-Day, if he was then in Life, and he died after Michaelmas, and before Lady-Day. And Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Id. 55.

See 2 Lev. fo. 7. where it was not held Usury Upon a Lease to accept a Lease for 300*l.* at the Rent of for 300*l.* 35*l.* per Ann. conditioned to be void if he paid the 300*l.* at the End of Four Years; for it was said to be only an Annuity determinable by the Grantor when he pleased.

Vide de Annuitat' & Arrerag' inde pro Exec' vers' Exec', Winch. Ent. 288. & Rob. Ent. 220.

And 1 Lut. 273. adjudged, That there can be no Usury without a Loan: Also, that if it appear by the Plaintiff's shewing in his Declaration that the Contract is usurious, and cannot be otherwise, Judgment shall be against the Plaintiff, otherwise it shall not be intended. Ibid.

Vide eund' 466. Resolved, That although it appears by the Words of the Condition that the Bond is usurious, yet no Advantage may be taken thereby, if the Statute is not pleaded. Where the Statute must be pleaded.

Observations upon a Statute.

When a Statute is made at the Sessions, &c. held by Prorogation, the most brief and sure Way is to plead, Qu' ad Session' Parliamenti, &c. 1 Lut. 140.

If a Statute is made to continue to such a Day, and another Act is made before the Expiration of the first, to continue it for ever; is all one as if the first Act had been perpetual at first. Id. 221.

Where a Statute ought to be recited in the Writ or Count. Vide 2 Lut. 1548.

As for the Statute of Limitations pleaded:

Upon Entry and Claims to avoid Fines.

Note, That by an Act made 4 & 5 of Queen Anne, ca. 16. It is enacted, That no Claim or Entry to be made of or upon any Lands Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall be of any Force or Effect to avoid any Fine levied, or to be levied, with Proclamations, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided in the Queen's Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, or in the Courts of Sessions in any of the Counties Palatine, or in the Courts of Grand Sessions of Wales, of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall be a sufficient Entry or Claim within the Statute made in the 21st Year of King James the First, intituled, (An Act for Limitation of Actions, and for avoiding of Suits in Law), unless upon such Entry or Claim, an Action shall be commenced within One Year next after the making such Entry or Claim, and prosecuted with Effect.

Action with-

after Entry,
&c.

Suits for Sea-mens Wages in the Admiralty.

That all Suits and Actions in the Court of Admiralty for Seamen's Wages, shall be commenced and sued within Six Years next after the Cause of such Suits or Actions shall accrue and not after. Provided Provided, That if any Person or Persons who is, or shall be, entitled to any such Suit or Action for Seamen's Wages, be, or shall be, at the time of any such Cause of Suit or Action accrued, fallen, or come, within the Age of 21 Years, Feme Covert, non Compos Mentis, imprisoned, or beyond the Seas, that then such Person or Persons shall be at Liberty to bring the same Actions, so as they take the same within Six Years next after their coming to, or being of full Age, discover, of sane Memory, at large, and returned from beyond the Seas.

Liberty for Persons beyond the Seas.

And that if any Person or Persons against whom there is, or shall be, any such Cause of Suit or Action for Seamen's Wages, or against whom there shall be any Cause of Action of Trespass, Detinue, Action sur Trover, or Replevin, for taking away Goods or Cattle, or of Action of Account, or upon the Case, or of Debt grounded upon any Lending or Contract without Specialty, of Debt for Arrearages of Rent, or Assault, Menace, Battery, Wounding, and Imprisonment, or any of them, be or shall be, at the time of any such Cause of Suit or Action given or accrued, fallen or come, beyond the Seas; That then such Person or Persons, who is, or shall be, entitled to any such Suit or Action, shall be at Liberty to bring the said Action against such Person or Persons after their Return from beyond the Seas, so as they take the same after their Return from beyond the Seas within such Times as are respectively limited for the bringing of the said Actions before by this Act, and by the said other Act made in the 21st Year of King James the First.

Heir to the 10th Degree.

IT is said, That Debt lies against the Heir, upon an Obligation of the Ancestor, to the 10th Degree, Noy 56. Denny's Case.

Upon the Obligation of the Father.

How an Heir shall be charged on the Obligation of his Father; see at the end of Popham, Jones p. 85. 155. Bowyer and Rowil, vide Siderf. p. 342.

In the Debet
and Detinet.

It must be brought in the Debet and Detinet. Latch. p. 203. The Bill was on the File, Debet & Detinet, but the Declaration on the Roll was Detinet only, which could not be amended after Verdict; but Leave was given by the Court to declare upon the old Bill, being within Three Terms he may declare, because the Debt itself had been lost, for that the Heir after the Bill entered had aliened the Term. Ibid.

Aided after Verdict.

Debt against an Heir in the Detinet only is aided after Verdict, by the Statute 16 & 17 Car. 2. Cap. 8. but not otherwise. 2 Keble 259. 290. Siderfin, p. 342. Comler and Waltoe

Tho' Executors have Assets.

It's good against the Heir, tho' the Executors have Assets, he may have his Election. And. p. 7. Sir Ed. Capel's Case.

Requisites to bind an Heir.

Two Things are observed to be requisite to bind an Heir: 1. Lien express; 2. Lands by Descent. In Debt against an Heir, he is charged ed as Heir, and the Writ is in the Debet and Detinet, and it's not in auter Droit, but taken as his proper Debt. From 18 Ed. 2. till 7 H. 4. if the Executor had Affets the Heir was not chargable, but now the Law is changed in that Point. If the Heir sell the Land before the Writ purchased, he is discharged of the Debt in regard he is not to wait the Action of the Obligee. But this is again prevented by 3 & 4 W. & M. cap. 14. And Execution may be taken out against the Heir to the Value of the Land; but there is a Saving, that Lands, bona fide, aliened before the Action brought, shall not be liable to such Execution. See after.

Execution against an Heir.

Note, By this Statute, upon the Heirs making over his Lands before any Action brought, all Creditors shall be preferred, as in Actions against Executors and Administrators.

Creditors,
how preferred.

See an Abridgment of this Statute at the latter end of this Title.

Trusts descending, it's said, shall be Affets by the Statute of Frauds and Perjuries, so Lands of special Occupancy: vid. Stat. Also 3 & 4 W. & M. cap. 14.

Trusts liable.

And upon the Argument, the Plaintiff's Several Ex-Counsel insisted upon the Exceptions mention- ceptions pro
 ed in the Demurrer. Quer'.

Obj. 1. That the Defendant had not confessed the Debt, according to all Precedents in the like Case.

2. That the Defendant had not shewn any Thing by which it might appear that the Lessee had accepted the Lease, as by Entry; and before Entry there is no Reversion, and by Consequence the Fee Simple descended to the Defendant.

3. That it is not shewn that the Reversion descended to him.

It

It was answer'd by the Defendant's Council:

1. That all that which is not denied is confessed; and that there is no Necessity that it should be expressly confessed by a direct Bene & verum est.

2. That the Lessee might enter when he pleased; and if there was no Demise, the Plaintiff might plead it.

3. To the Third, he only said, That it was well enough. Vide 1 Lut. 444, 445. And there the Reporter observes, That it is expressly alledged that he never had any Lands, &c. by Discent from his Father, except the said Reversion; and then in the Conclusion of this Plea he demands Judgment, Si ipse de debito predict' preterquam in reversione & redditu predict' onerari debeat; which are strong Implications that there was such a Demise, and that the Lessee had enter'd, and there was such a Debt due to the Plaintiff. Mes adjournatur (says he), Et quid inde venit nescio, car ne fuit argue apres.

Eliz. dead without Issue.

It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Writ and Declaration were good, and that the Verdict did well maintain them; but the Case of 24 E. 3. 47. Br. Tit. Assets 19. was cited on the Part of the Defendant, but that Book stood upon a Quære in the Case.

On the Part of the Plaintiff were cited Jenks's Case, Cro. Car. 151. & Dyer 368. Pl. 46. Rolls Abr. Tit. Trial, 709. nu. 62. See Bell's Case Herley 134. & 3 Lev. 286. & 3 Mod. Rep. 253. Kellow and Rowden's Case.

Judic’ pro
Quer’.

In this principal Case, the Plaintiff had Judgment upon the first Argument; Wright cum Def Lutwich cum Quer’. Vide 1 Lut. 507, & 508

Nota, Omission in Narr’.

where it is noted, That in the principal Case it is not alledged in the Declaration, that the Obligor had obliged himself and his Heirs by the Bill Obligatory, but no Notice was taken of it.

But that if it had been objected, it had been amendable as a Misprison of the Clerk, &c. by the Authorities of Walker and Worsley's Case, Hutton 83. Co. 8. 159. a. Blackamore's Case, and Sir Francis Worthley's Case, Litt. Rep. 278, 279. & Jones 199. But in the last Case cited, Justice Jones was of a contrary Opinion, because the Attorney had taken upon him to do that which a Council ought to do, and the Act of the Council is not amendable. But says the Reporter, It is well known to us at this Day, that Council is never concerned in drawing Declarations in Actions in Debt upon Bond. See after.

Note, The Case, 3 Lev. 286. is said to be a good Case touching this Matter; where the Action is thus:

A. seised in Fee, made an Estate Tail, the Reversion to himself in Fee. He enter'd into a Bond; and after divers Descents from Heir to Heir in Tail, the Tail determined; and it's said, The Heir of the Fee ought to be charged as Heir to A. not as Heir to any of the Mesne Heirs in Tail, because they were never actually seised of the Fee.

The Court upon the first Argument inclined for the Plaintiff; and Two of the Justices denied, that upon a general Pleading Riens per Descent the Reversion in Fee shall be adjudged to charge the Heir, and said, that constant Experience was to the contrary: Et adournatur. But next Hill. Term, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff by the Opinion of Three Justices. Id. Lev. 287.

Omission in the Narr', if amendable.

In the Declaration were omitted [Et ad eandem solutionem faciend' obligo me & heredes meos], it was amended, Cro. Jac. 147. Forger and Sales. Alit' if one declare in Debet & detinet, where it ought to be in the Detinet only. Ibid. Winch, p. 20. Sed vide ante.

Against a Collateral
Heir, the Declaration
must be special.

Upon a Declaration on a Bond against a Collateral Heir, the Declaration must be special; as Debt against the Brother and Heir, the Defendant pleads Riens per Discent from his said Brother: But he had Asssets by Discent from the Son of his Brother, but he must be charged by special Declaration: And so Judgment pro Def'. Observations and Cases on this Head.

DEbt was brought against Three Coheirs, Coheirs ~~none~~ Two confess Affets, the other pleads to ~~sued~~ Issue, and is nonsuited; It's a Nonsuit against them all, tho' the Two have confess'd; and so the Plaintiff lost his Debt, there being an Alienation before a new Original. Siderfin, p. 378. Black's Case.

In Debt vers' Coheirs on several Issues on Affets only Riens per Discent, Affets was found as to one as to one only; Judgment was given against her that had Affets; Qd' recuperet debitum & dampna sua generally ut de bonis propriis. 2 Keb. p. 588.

Upon Nil dic-

Also upon Nil dicit, the Heirs own Lands and Goods shall be charged, id est, a general Judgment. See the late Act afterwards.

Bail.

And upon a Writ of Error, the Heir shall put in Bail, per Stat. 16 Car. 2. Vide 2 Keb. 156, 320.

Portions for

The Heir pleads Lands let out for Portions, besides a Reversion, of which he hath nothing; Repl^y, That a third Part descended, and Judgment special. 1 Keb. 156.

Devise of Lands on the Mother's Side.

Note, It is said, That if a Man, seized of Lands on the Mother's Side, devise them for 16 Months for Payment of Debts, and afterwards to J. who is his Heir on the Mother's Side, he shall take by Discent, and not by Purchase. 3 Lev. 127.

In Debt against an Heir, 'tis no Plea that the Executor had Assets.

Demurrer to such a Plea,
and good.

DEBT was brought upon a Bond against the Defendant as Heir, who pleaded, That Administration from the Ancestors was committed to J. S. who had administered, and had Assets: The Plaintiff demur'd, and upon the Argument had Judgment; for the Plaintiff had Election to sue the one or the other. 3 Lev. Rep. 189. So 'twas held to be no Plea by an Heir, That the Executor had Assets; but on the contrary, in Debt against Executors.

If an Heir and Executor be both chargeable upon Specialties, it is no Plea for the one, that another Action is depending against the other: Auter Action depending, no Plea.
3 Lev. 303.

If a Man seized a Parte Materna convey the whole, Part to himself for Life, the other Part to himself for Years, with divers Remainders in Tail, with Remainder to his right Heirs; this is the Ancient Reversion, and the whole goes to the Heir, a parte Materna. Id. 406. Heir a Parte Materna.

An Act of Parliament was, That the Heirs of J. S. a Person attainted, should enjoy the Lands; the Person who should have been Heir, if no Attainder had been, shall be taken as Heir, and enjoy the Land. 1 Lev. Ent. 73. Act, that the Heir of Person attainted should enjoy.

The Sons of Two Aliens naturalized shall inherit, and may be Heirs the one to the other. d. 59. Sons of Aliens.

Debt was brought against an Heir, who pleaded Riens per Discent, after Verdict for the Plaintiff it was moved in Arrest of Judgment, that the Action was in the Detinet only; to which it was answer'd, That it was for the Benefit of the Defendant, and might be in the Debet and Detinet, or the Detinet only, and cited 10 H. 7. 8. b. But by the Court it was held ill, and not cured by the Verdict, and Judgment was given, Qd' Quer' nil capiat per Billam. 1 Lev. 130. Action may be in the Debet or Detinet.

Sed vide 1 Lev. 224. Debt was brought against an Heir upon the Bond of his Ancestor in the Detinet only; after Verdict it was moved, Seems it ought to be in both, but cured after That Verdict.

Amendable.

That it ought to be in the Debet and Detinet, and so the Court held at first; but afterwards it was resolv'd to be cured by the Oxford Act of Jeofails, being after Verdict, altho' it is not by the particular Words in the Statute, yet it is by the general Words (and other like Cases). A second Exception was, That the Defendant appeared by his Guardian, and it did not appear that he was within 21 Years of Age, nor is the Guardian said to be admitted by the Court, and thereupon it was stay'd: But by the Court, if the Guardian piece could be found, and it is so enter'd there, the Court would amend the Declaration by it.

Where the Jury may, or may not, find the Value.

The Jury find the Defendant had divers Lands in Fee by Descent, and shews not what, yet Judgment good; for upon his false Plea, Judgment shall be given generally against him if he have any Affets, and so the Quantity of the Affets is not material; but otherwise in case of Executors, for there they must find the Value of the Affets, for he must there recover according to the Affets found. 1 Rolls Rep. 234. Evett and Suckliff.

same, whereof the Devisors shall be seized in Fee simple, in Possession, Reversion or Remainder, or have Power to dispose thereof, shall be deemed (only as against Creditors upon Bonds, or other Specialties, their Executors, &c.) to be fraudulent & void.

Action against the Heirs at Law, and Devisees.

And such Creditors shall have their Actions of Debt against the Heirs at Law, and such Devisees jointly; and such Devisees shall be chargeable for a false Plea, as any Heir should have been.

Upon a Devisee to pay just Debts, &c.

That where there shall be any Devisees of Lands, for Payment of just Debts, or Childrens Portions, other than the Heir at Law, in Pursuance of any Marriage Agreement made in Writing, bona fide, before such Marriage, they shall be in Force.

Where an Heir makes over the Land before any Action brought.

That where any Heir at Law shall be liable to pay the Debt of his Ancestor, in regard of any Lands descending unto him, and shall make over the same before any Action brought, such Heir shall be answerable for such Debts to the Value of the Land made over, in which Cases all Creditors shall be preferr'd, as in Actions against Executors and Administrators. And Execution upon any Judgment so obtained, shall be taken out against such Heirs to the Value of the Land, as if they were his own Debts, saving that Lands bona fide, aliened before the Action brought, shall not be liable to such Execution.

Lands bona fide alien'd, not liable.

How the Heir may plead to the Action, &c.

That where any Action of Debt upon a Specialty is brought against an Heir, he may plead Riens per Descend at the Time of the Original Writ brought, and the Plaintiff may reply that he had Lands from his Ancestor before the Original Writ brought; and if upon Issue join'd thereon it be found for the Plaintiff, the Jury

Jury shall enquire of the Value of the Lands descended, and thereupon Judgment shall be given, and Execution awarded as aforesaid: But if Judgment be given against such Heir by Confession, without confessing the Affers descended, or upon Demurrer, or Nihil dicit, it shall be for the Debt and Damages, without any Writ to inquire of the Lands.

That Devisees made liable by this Act, shall be chargeable as the Heir at Law by Force of this Act, though the Lands devised be aliened before the Action brought.

Devisees chargeable as Heirs at Law.

This Act is made perpetual by Stat. 6 & 7 W. 3. cap. 14.

See the Act of 8 & 9 W. 3. cap. 11. where upon any Prosecution in any the King's Courts of Record upon any Bond, or Penal Sum, for Non-performance of Covenants, Liberty is given to the Plaintiff to assign as many Breaches as he shall think fit, and upon Payment of Damages and Costs assessed before Execution executed, Stay of Execution to be entred on Record: Or if upon Execution executed, the Plaintiff, or his Executors or Administrators, shall be fully paid, Defendant discharged, and Satisfaction entred; yet the Judgment shall stand as a further Security to answer to the Plaintiff, his Executors, &c. upon a further Breach of Covenant in the said Deed, upon which the Plaintiff, &c. may have a Scire Facias against the Defendant, his Heirs, Tertenants, Executors, or Administrators, suggesting other Breaches, and summoning to shew Cause why Execution should not be awarded, &c. And upon Payment of Damages and Costs, Proceedings to be again stay'd; and so toties quoties.

Heirs, Tertenants, Executors and Administrators, liable to Execution upon a Judgment, upon a Bond or Penal Sum for Non-performance of Covenants.
